THE NUGGET.

DAHLONEGA, GA., MARCH 4, 1898.

Published at the Dahlonega, Ga. P. O. as Second Class Matter.

It seems that Jackson county has had her hands full in disposing of wilful murderers within the past few months.

Col. Howard Thompson is around now shelling the woods, who will be assisted by Hon. F. C. Tate later on.

A London paper says that Spain can expect no support moral or otherwise, from England against the United States.

Col. Candler will soon return to Gainesville where he will open up head quarters and arrange the details of the campaign. Judge Atkinson will remain in Atlanta.

We understand that Col. Farrow will be at Porter Springs tomorrow and will come from there here to see whether the people of Dahlonega want to join him in the construction of a telephone line from Gainesville to our town. He is going to build it to Porter Springs but will come via Dahlonega if the people want it and will assist him.

The Signal thinks that we are mistaken in our assertion that Col. Candler had weakened himself in Lumpkin county by his letter. This is what the leading democrats claim. We are not in it ourselves and are only giving the news as it occurs to us. Even the democrat that told the editor of the Signal some time ago to push up things for Col. Candler, stated to us that the old man had made a big mistake.

H. H. Bush, after being under arrest forty-five days in Gainesville makes a $1,000 bond and is now free. The bond was first fixed at $5,000 but Judge Kinsey was appealed to and reduced it. His bondsmen are, L. J. Martin and D. E. Evans. Our readers are most all familiar with this case. Mr. Bush is charged by C. Epper son, of Macon, with misappropriating funds contrary to law.

What was claimed to be the biggest hog in the world died in Columbus the past week. It was the property of Frank Williams, and weighed over a thousand pounds. The animal was over four feet high and was seven feet and nine inches in girth and was about ten feet long. Its owner had just brought him in from a tour of exhibition, and the hog died at the end of the journey. Northern parties had made flattering offers to Mr. Williams for the property, but he had refused them. —Macon Telegraph.

Last Friday things looked very gloomy in congress for the revenue reporter, as the committee of the whole house was opposed to donating $75,000 to be used in paying him to report his neighbors stiffs, and struck it from the sundry civil appropriation bill, but last Monday it came up in the house and was restored and passed by a vote of 103 to 67. Twenty-five thousand still were destroyed last year and the majority favored the same progress in the business this year, but could not do so without the assistance of the reporter. So the reporters can all now rejoice and continue their sneaking work.

According to the rotation system it is White county's time to name the candidate that is suitable to represent Lumpkin, White and Dawson counties in the next senate. It is fully believed that our sister county will put out a good man as they have plenty of suitable material to select from. Sometimes a mistake is made by electing a man whose name never appears in the proceedings of the legislature unless it is in the absentee column. We hope that such a mistake as this will never occur again. We learn that Mr. W. H. Courtney's name is mentioned in connection with senatorial honors by his friends in White, Mr. Courtney did represent us once and certainly made a bustling member.

Minin g Notes.

Fifteen hands are now constantly employed at the Big Joe Mine taking out the precious metal. Bill Bryson, one of Lumpkin county's active miners says that no one can make a success at mining who paints his shoe boxes, has two or three bachelors and as many bosses. Bill has neither dogs nor bosses, but does his own work and the result is he has money in the bank to show for his labor.

The old Barlow mill, after about a month's rest, was set to running again this week by Superintendent Joseph Bell who had been engaged in stripping many rich veins in order to keep it going constantly hereafter on full time.

Mr. Whortor, who has been looking over our gold fields for some time, left one day last week to return again at an early day, with the expectation of purchasing some mining property in our county. When he first arrived here he didn't believe there was anything to be made in the mining operation, but since making a thorough investigation is willing to risk his money in some of the property here. Others have been just like this gentleman, but are easy convinced that money can be made by mining here, after looking over the property and making a thorough test of the same.

The Berch dredge boat is now at work in the river down at the Briar Patch on the side next to Dunk Hollifield's property. In cleaning up the other day they found a handful of nice nuggets. The least weighed two and the largest eight dwts.

College News.

Several of the cadets are wearing broad smiles on account of the recent promotion. All the officers below the adjutant were raised one notch higher and W. J. Shahan Love Garner, Gardner and Newton were promoted from private to corporal. The young ladies of the Corona Society speak of having a box supper some evening in the near future. Last Saturday the Decora Society discussed the subject: Resolved, That the study of the dead languages should be abandoned in school. Decision was rendered in favor of the affirmative.

The Phi Mu Society laid aside their regular debate last Saturday to elect their public and champion debaters. The public debaters are: D. C. Stow, G. W. Thompson, Mr. Nance and F. S. Price, Salutatorian, I. O. Parker. The champion debaters are: Messrs. L. N. Shahan and C. Shultz. Mr. W. J. Shahan resigned as speaker on the open debate and Mr. Grant was appointed in his place.

Six new names were added to the Normal class roll last Monday. The class is so large that the place of recitation was changed from Prof. Stow's to Miss Clark's room.

The literary societies are making arrangements to select their commencement orator. Mr. Gurley who has charge of a part of the college farm is improving it very rapidly. It will soon be a good farm for experimental purposes. The "A" class should feel complimented. Prof. Witherspoon says it is one of the best classes he has ever taught.

Those who received the best record in their classes for the fall term are as follows.

Senior, Miss Hattie Rogers. Junior, B. C. Parks. Sophomore, H. L. Penock. Freshman, Miss Eva McKee. "A" Lee Sosebee. "B" Miss Estelle Harris. Sergeant McDonald and Capt. Carter returned to their homes first of the week. M. Donald is going to teach school, Carter was called away on account of sickness in his home.

H. D. Gurley, Jr. is now excused from military duty. He resigned his office as Sergeant-Major and says he means to join the First Squad.

Valuable to Women.

Especially valuable to women is Brown's Bitters. Backache, vanishes, headache disappears, strength takes the place of weakness, and the glow of health readily comes to the pallid cheek when this wonderful remedy is taken. For richly colored overworked men it has no equal. No home should be without this famous remedy. Brought from France it is sold by all druggists.

Local Items.

We have also found a weak place in our head and dressed our eyes up in a pair of specs this week.

J. B. Clements has been unable to look after his mining business for some days on account of sickness.

Dr. Smith was in the city first of the week. He reports every thing moving along all right down at New Bridge.

Col. Chapters has been over to Rabun court this week attending to some legal business as well as fixing his stakes in the interest of his candidacy.

E. E. Crisson has at last got so he can visit town. Mr. Crisson was very sick for a while and it was feared that he might not recover at one time.

Last Tuesday we received a letter from a gentleman at Porter Springs containing $1.75 for the NUGGET and Constitution, who closed his letter as follows: "We can't afford to be without the NUGGET."

Miss Sallie, daughter of Martin Anderson, was wedded to P. Dispain a few days ago in Wahoo district by Squire Brown. It was a runaway match and one which gives the parents of the girl much dissatisfaction. It is stated that the Squire shivered just like he had a chill while performing the ceremony. It is said that R. V. J. N. Austin refused to marry them because he believed it contrary to law on account of certain things which we will not mention just at this time.

It is said that Bill Gibbs, who we mentioned last week as being knee deep in trouble on account of his female associates leaving him alone in Davis' district recently, has changed his tune since finding a lock of one hair in an old vest pocket which had been left for him as a keepsake. He is crazy with grief and it seems that he now imagines that he is a bird as it is said that he wanders about with this lock of hair in his mouth, singing, "I will build my nest in the middle of the sea where the bad boys can't bother me."

The election last Monday "for public schools" in Dahlonega carried by a good majority. Seventy-eight voted for and twelve against it out of a registration list of ninety. We suppose that some steps will be taken now in order to carry out the law. Quite likely an election will be ordered for bonds as soon as an estimate is made to see what two suitable lots with buildings thereon will cost so as to fit up places for both the white and colored children. The present colored school only averages from twenty-three to twenty-five pupils and it will not require a very large house to accommodate them.

The communication sent in this week headed "A Dry Town With a Wet Marshal," is not published for two reasons. First, because it makes unnecessary reflections on the entire members of the council of Dahlonega when we are satisfied that some of the assertions about them are untrue. None of them get anything for their services and to run a town government like this causes them enough trouble at cost to "make a preacher curse." But if the marshal tips the glass too much, as is charged, every tax payer of the town is interested because they pay his salary. Such a matter as this should of course be investigated, as no Marshal can discharge the duties of such office and drink much liquor. Business and liquor is like water and tar, it won't mix. We have tried it sufficiently to know, but it was many years before we were convinced of the fact. One allusion made in this letter to the council was that the writer had understood that the body had given a permit allowing the marshal to take three drinks a day when last year each applicant had to sign a temperance pledge before they would even consider his application. The writer should consider that this is a new council with the exception of one member, and we have no idea that any such thing as this was even thought of much less done.

Macon only has twenty-one cases of small pox now.

Mr. Birch who is engaged in mining has moved into the residence on the Keystone property.

Col. J. J. Hickman, of Missouri, will spend three months in Georgia canvassing the state in the interest of temperance.

Judge Kinsey has postponed Habersham Superior Court, which was to have convened next week, until some future time on account of the small pox in that county.

Several New York mill men have been in Gainesville during the past few days looking for a cotton mill site, and it may be that they will establish a plant in that city.

Georgia federal convicts will hereafter be sent to the North Carolina penitentiary at Raleigh. The Columbus, Ohio, penitentiary has become crowded besides the climate injures the health of the mountain boys.

The members of the prison commission are out now looking for a building site. There is no chance for its establishment in Lumpkin county as the board wants not less than 2,000 acres of land situated near two competing railroad systems.

The Supreme Court has just given local option a heavy lick, which wipes out a large number of local liquor laws enacted by the legislature since the general prohibition laws were passed. This decision effects all the local liquor laws passed in twelve years.

The story that external agencies caused the Maine disaster is not confirmed and the war cloud is waning. Uncle Sam has all the war ships in position so as to be ready if war should be declared, though it doesn't look much like trouble just now. The divers are still taking out dead bodies.

We are requested to announce the name of J. M. Berry for sheriff, who promises to faithfully perform the duties of such office to the best of his ability if elected. Mr. Berry lives out on Nimblewill and is well known to all. He says that he has commenced early but expects to stick to the "building" until the matter is settled at the polls.

A NEW TRIUMPH.

The Dreaded Consumption Can Be Cured.

T. A. Slocum, the Great Chemist and Scientist, Will Send to Sufferers, Three Free Bottles of His Newly Discovered Remedies to Cure Consumption and All Lung Troubles.

Nothing could be finer, more pleasurable or more moving for the afflicted than to be offered of the honored and distinguished chemist, T. A. Slocum, M. C., of New York City.

He has discovered a reliable and absolute cure for consumption, and all bronchial, throat, lung and chest disease, catarrhal affections, general decline and weakness, loss of flesh and all conditions of wasting away; and to make its great merits known, will send three free bottles of his newly discovered remedies to any afflicted reader of the NUGGET.

Alas! the new scientific system of medicine has pronounced our bronchitis of apparently hopeless cases.

The Doctor considers it not only his professional, but his religious duty to duty to which he owes suffering humanity—to donate his valuable cure.

He has proved the "dreaded consumption" to be a curable disease beyond a doubt, in any climate, and has seen it in his American and European laboratories thousands of "heartfelt testimonials of gratitude" from those benefited and cured, in all parts of the world.

Catarrhal and pulmonary troubles lead to consumption, and consumption, unintermitted, means speedy and certain death. Don't delay until it is too late. Simply write T. A. Slocum, M. C., 98 Pine Street, New York, giving address and post office address, and the free medicine will be promptly sent. Please tell the Doctor you saw his offer in the NUGGET, Jan. 25.

A few days ago Henry Grizzle and Wylie Wimpy went up into Yahoola district after a load of corn and to see the people generally. They fell in company with Turkey Bill Postell who is a candidate for the legislature. Turkey was liberal with his electioneering tonic and the boys got on so much that they walked home, leaving their team and the next morning when they woke up they were at a loss to know where they had left their wagon and team. Turkey has been a candidate before and knows how to fix up his drops so as to cause them to have the desired effect.

A PROCLAMATION.

By W. P. Price, Mayor of the Town of Dahlonega.

Whereas, at an election held in the town of Dahlonega on the 28th day of February, 1898, the qualified voters of said town were called upon to decide the question of establishing a system of public schools; and whereas, the managers of said election have officially informed the Mayor and Council of Dahlonega that a constitutional majority of the qualified voters of said town have declared in favor of Public Schools (78 yeas—12 nays). I, in behalf of the Mayor and Council declare that the following named citizens of Dahlonega, in accordance with the act of the General Assembly, approved December 17, 1894, and whose names are mentioned in said act, shall constitute the Board of School Commissioners for the town of Dahlonega, to-wit: J. F. Moore, H. D. Gurley, E. W. Hall, W. A. Charters and J. V. Harrison.

The above named Board of School Commissioners will meet in the council chamber in the town of Dahlonega, on a quorum of three, on Monday night March 7, 1898, at 7:30 o'clock, p. m., for the purpose of organizing said Board of School Commissioners in accordance with the aforesaid act of the General Assembly.

Given under my hand and official seal of office, this March 1, 1898.

W. P. PRICE, Mayor, H. D. STRICKLAND, Clerk.

FOR TAX RECEIVER.

We are authorized to announce the name of J. A. Anderson for tax Receiver of Lumpkin county at the ensuing election in October.

GEORGIA, Lumpkin County. Mrs. Sarah I. McQuire having applied to me for the setting apart to her of a 12 months support out of the estate of L. G. McQuire, late of said county deceased, and the return of said support, the same being on file in my office. All persons concerned are hereby notified that I will pass upon the same at my office in Dahlonega, Ga., on the first Monday in March 1898, at 10 o'clock, a. m. This 2nd day of February 1898. W. H. C. TATE, Ordinary.

WALL PAPER.

Do you expect to do any papering? We will send you free a large selection of samples from 2c. per roll up all new colorings and novelties up to date. WE PAY FREIGHT. We want an agent in every town to sell on commission from large sample books. No capital required. For samples or particulars address S. WOLF, Feb 25th 37-753 Ninth Ave. N. Y. City.

G. H. McGuire, JEWELLER, Dahlonega, Ga.

Having permanently located in Dahlonega I am now ready to do all kinds of work in my line at prices to suit the times. Bring along your clocks, watches and sewing machines. All work guaranteed for twelve months. Shop next door above Jones & Brooksher's store. G. H. MCGUIRE, April 23rd

Send in your money and announcements.

Dr. Jones made a trip to Gainesville last week.

Mrs. J. S. Stewart left for Marietta last Tuesday where she goes to visit her mother.

The Commissary has just received the nicest and cheapest dress goods ever brought to Dahlonega.

A. S. Wheelchel, of New Bridge, who never comes to town unless he has business, was in the city last Tuesday.

Deputy Marshal Grizzle captured a very large still in Dawson one day last week. It held about 125 gallons.

It is rumored that Mrs. Dr. Jones will soon commence a suit against her husband asking for a divorce.

If all the parties run for office in this county that have been talking about it we will have money to loan when they announce.

From the way some of them yelled in town last Sunday night there must have been too much overjoyful on hand.

Moore & McGuire represent three of the best houses known and can fit you up with any kind of a taylor made suit at reasonable figures.

Lewis Cochran, of Randa, made a trip to Dahlonega last Monday being the first time he has been back since he moved to that place. He looked as natural as a black eyed pea.

Mr. rumor says that Capt. F. W. Hall, of Dahlonega, and Mrs. O. G. Brown, of Gainesville, are engaged and will wed before the present month is out.

We understand that the proper officials have their eyes on A. S. Wheelchel's property, in the rear of M. F. Wheelchels for a school site, for the white children. It will cost $125.

A. B. Crenshaw, the newly appointed post master at the Ford was among the New Bridge visitors last Tuesday. His commission hadn't come up to that time but was expected every mail.

It seems that the ministers during the protracted meeting at Mt. Pisgah church in Chestate district recently, accomplished much good. A number of young men joined the church and we understand that several of them have pledged themselves to drink no more liquor.

There was no one on hand at the sheriff's sales last Tuesday that cared to till the soil much, judging from the low price the Smith farm down on the river near New Bridge brought. It is worth a good deal more than a $1,000 and only brought $410. Col. Price bid it off as agent.

Some of the fun loving darkies of Dahlonega had a gay old time last Monday night enjoying a dance. There were two certain church members that could not go without breaking the rules of the church and they secured a team and went off after a couple of jugs of liquor for medical purposes.

Elsewhere will be found the announcement of J. A. Anderson who wishes to serve in the capacity of Tax Receiver and says that he means to stay on the track until the race is over. Nearly everybody knows John. He is that long tall clever Anderson that makes friends wherever he goes.

Bill Hix, who was bound over by Com. Baker last Wednesday for blockading, said he knew many people in Dahlonega, but when the time came for him to make bond but few of them knew him and those that did went off and hid and the man had to go jail. Doubtless some of them had at some time bought liquor from him. They didn't hide nor shun Bill then. Had all have done so then the defendant would not have been peeping through the prison bars to day.

Little Tom McAfee has returned from Lawrenceville.

Bailiff James Walker has decided not to move to White county, and will remain a citizen, of Dahlonega.

Mrs. M. J. Williams, of Dahlonega, accompanied her brother Mr. John Holcomb, to Alabama last Tuesday.

Mrs. Amanda Brooksher, who has been dangerously sick since the death of her daughter several days ago, is some better and may recover yet.

C. W. Satterfield is now business manager of The Commissary while Mr. Wallace takes charge of the books. The business of the firm could not be put into safer hands.

At the next term of Lumpkin Superior Court the town will be full of people, about one-fourth of them candidates. Keep an eye on the NUGGET and see who they are.

Collector Trammell, after being out raiding through several counties for a number of days, returned to Dahlonega last Wednesday accompanied by Collector E. M. Rembert.

Nice bright dress plads 5 cents per yard, brass shoe spurs 4 cents per paper, and a brand new Singer sewing machine, five drawers, for $17.87.

B. R. MEADES & SONS.

We guess those young men of our county who desired to join the U. S. Army some time ago are glad now that their parents begged them out of the notion since there has been so much war talk.

Three more new students arrived from Pickens last Saturday. This county is well represented in our college which shows that her young men believe in educating and fitting themselves for business.

Rev. Mr. Parks, pastor of the Dahlonega Baptist church, went up to the colored church last Sunday and assisted in ordaining Isaac Rucker to preach the gospel. Isaac is one of the leading colored people of the county, and is thought well of by both white and black, all of whom wish him success in his new undertaking.

It is said that Alice Keys, the daughter of the old lady who gets $1,100 for her and her children, was in town last week consulting a lawyer for the purpose of seeing whether she was entitled to a child's part. She was informed that she was and will quite likely call on her mother for the same, who, if she fails to get it, will cause some trouble.

Abe Woody came over last week from Union and subscribed for the NUGGET in order to keep posted about affairs in his old home county. Abe was one of the parties charged with white capping young Phillips some time ago but Phillips has left out for parts unknown and the officials in Atlanta didn't seem to think that there was anything in the case as they haven't so far set it for trial.

Frank Lowery, colored, thinks that the black voters should be recognized by the jury commissioners and ordinary when it comes to making out the jury list and appointing road overseers. He said that Judge Tate while a candidate promised to use his influence in having the colored names put in the jury box and would remember him when he went to appoint road commissioners. Frank must remember that Mr. Tate was like all other candidates, talking for votes.

What sudden changes can take place. Less than two weeks ago the widow Keys was working for a certain gentleman in Dahlonega at fifty cents per week. The last week she broke a lamp chimney and only had forty cents left after paying for the breakage. Today she could buy every thing that man had and then have plenty of money left. Such beneficial changes always keeps us in good heart, hoping that we will be a second Jay Gould one of these days. Who knows?

Remember what the cross mark means on your paper. When your time expires renew your subscription if you wish to continue reading the NUGGET.

The Methodist preachers will regret to know that the chickens in this section are dying with some unknown disease. They some times drop off of the roost as dead as if shot by a gun or pistol.

Mr. Wins Bruce, who has been located in Gainesville, moved to Dahlonega this week and will commence the new improvements on his recently purchased town property at an early day.

Our friend John Holcomb, who left Dahlonega some twelve years ago and went into business at Gadsden, Ala., was up this week for the first time since his departure. John is still in business in that city making money.

We regret to learn that Mrs. Grif Davis died on the 23rd ult. in Auraria district, aged 43. She was the mother of twelve children all of whom are living. One is an infant only a few days old while others are grown and married.

Up in Davis' district the other day while the woods were a fire Barney Wehnt climbed upon an old dead tree so as to escape from the flames. Just as he reached the top down it came. He escaped uninjured but the fire got the best of his old hat.

Mr. V. Harbison, father of James V. Harbison, of Dahlonega, is on a visit here from Tennessee. The old gentleman is 84 years of age and made a distance of about as many miles last week a horseback through the cold, which shows that he enjoys good health. He will likely spend some time here before he departs.

We are informed that Wm McDonald, of Kansas, who went from this county some years ago, expects to return to the home of his childhood. Since being in that country he has lost his wife and one child. A W. Woody, who lives in the same neighborhood, lost one of his children a few days ago and he expects to move to some other section.

Last Saturday Al. Roberts and his son Charlie had a little twist, causing the females to give the alarm which was quieted by James Anderson going up and separating the man and his boy. It looks bad for a boy to attempt to fight his father. We have noticed where a boy continues to do this he is most sure to come to some bad end. We hope that nothing of the kind will ever occur again in our quiet little town.

The blockader that violates the law most and makes the largest amount of money seems to come out lighter than those that are not so successful in the business. We know of moneyed men in both Lumpkin and Dawson counties who have been blockading for years and are still in the business, that have had their cases continued in the U. S. Court for two terms and we notice that their cases have not been set for the present term.

Col. H. P. Farrow, of Gainesville, has made application to Ordinary Tate for permission to run a telephone line along the public road from the edge of Hall county through Lumpkin to Porter Springs and to such other places as may be desired. The matter will be passed upon next Monday by Judge Tate. The permit will be granted as there is no objection to telephone or even railroads being constructed in any part of the county that we have heard of.

One of the bloodiest riots that has occurred in Lumpkin county in many years happened up in Simblewill district a short time ago. Wm. Crane and his son, Mart Wehnt, Reo, George and Lewis Frix and others were in the engagement. Rocks, knucks and sticks seemed to be the weapons used. Mart Wehnt was bruised up badly with a pair of knucks and a young Bill Crane was struck with a rock. It is said that one of the participants is on the next grand jury.

If you want to be happy read the NUGGET but don't borrow it.

Clerk Moore made a strictly business trip to Gainesville this week.

Mrs. Stephen Rice, who has been sick for several days, is recovering.

Several old soldiers were in town last Tuesday having their pension claims made out.

The proclamation of Mayor Price concerning the school election will be found elsewhere.

Will Hix was brought in last Tuesday by Marshal Grizzle on account of his having been hauled illicit liquor contrary to law.

All those who are owing me will please come forward and settle at once. That is where notes or accounts are now due.

C. H. JONES.

The jail is now empty again. The records show, so we are informed, that the jail expenses have been less for the last three months than at any period for the same length of time in ten years.

Miss Mary, the daughter of G. W. Buras, residing in the lower part of the county, was severely burned in the face last Sunday by dropping a kettle of hot water. She had not been able to open her eyes up to last Tuesday.

Judge Tate had a tinner up on the court house a few days ago stopping the leaks in the roof. It is a good idea. The old saying is, a stitch in time saves nine, which is true. It might prove so in this case by adding a good coat of paint to the roof.

Quite a number of our citizens answered to the call of the Mayors public meeting by being present at the court house last Friday evening to hear the question of public schools discussed by several of our leading citizens. They were among the largest tax payers of the town and say that they are perfectly willing to be taxed to establish and keep them up.

This is important and will be beneficial to you. I am a win flag up my business in Dahlonega for the purpose of locating in Gainesville and expect to leave for that city some time next week. So if you need any goods call around before I go and I will sell anything you want at cost. Those owing me will please come forward and settle off their accounts at once as I must win it up my business here.

The establishing of a tannery down at New Bridge by A. S. Wheelchel and Henry Butler, an excellent tanner formerly of Jay, is talked of. There is no doubt big money in this business for men who have means to start it in the proper way. Not an industry of this kind can be found in the county now and all the hides from this section have to be shipped to Gainesville where they are made into leather and shoes and brought back and sold to us at a big profit.

Last Monday night during the absence of B. F. Anderson, some one burst into his store by drawing a staple and forcing one of the rear windows open. The would be thief must have become scared and left without entering the store after doing this as nothing could be found missing. It was certainly a very bold trick as the house within six feet of the store was occupied by Mr. E. Carroll. The tracks showed that the midnight prowler had approached the building through the back lot.

Mr. T. S. Littlefield, who has been in the mercantile business at Dahlonega for quite a while, is going to pull up stakes and move to Gainesville where he will form a partnership with his brother Mr. Nilo Littlefield who has been in the same kind of business at Cleveland, to sell goods in the city that has railroads and street cars and electric lights. We didn't give up as easily as Mr. Littlefield but he thinks that he can do better and we trust that he will not be disappointed. We are not acquainted with his brother, but learn that all clever men are dead.

Mrs. Dr. Jones returned home last Friday.

Merchant Ben Anderson spent a few days in Atlanta this week.

Capt. Asbury, of White, spent a few hours in the city last Monday. The Captain reports everything moving along smoothly up his way.

The Signal calls us a "chronic grumbler" but we will wazer a war pension that we are receiving more money and new subscribers than that paper, all the same.

City Marshal Davis wore a very large smile last Tuesday on account of the appearance of a grand son at Eastwood Satterfields weighing twelve and a half pounds.

If you do not find enough of locals and other original matter on the inside of this issue turn back to the first page and see what we have for you in the way of news over there.

Last Monday while one of our patrons came in to renew his subscription to the NUGGET he said that it was the best paper ever published in the town. We of course agreed with him. Had he been a female there would have been a collision of lips if it had have caused a sensation in two minutes and a half, on account of the kind words spoken in our behalf.

At the meeting of the Board of Education of Lumpkin county last Monday B. F. J. B. Brown and C. W. Stargel were appointed census enumerators of the county for the sum of $37.50 each, the work to be done by the 15th of May. There were some twelve or fourteen applicants for the work. These men are thoroughly acquainted with the county and no doubt will do the work with entire satisfaction to the Board.

The patrons of Miss Lila Cain's school signed a petition which was put before the Board of Education of Lumpkin county last Monday asking that the terms of the town schools be continued longer than the two months that were fixed by the board, but the body was unable to act on it on account of the election "for schools" which was being held then. The commissioner said that it could be done and the members we talked to were willing to continue the term but the people said by their votes that they desired a change in the management of the schools here, which no longer is in the hands of the county board of education.

We understand that some of those who have to hear themselves talk have been saying some hard things about us because we stated that we didn't see how the people could stand a higher taxation when they were unable to pay the present rate, men too who own several hundred dollars worth of property. It is so natural for people to talk about the living and when a person dies with a few dollars in his pockets, it matters not if he has been as mean as the devil, they will gather around and talk and cry and keep him out of the ground until he becomes offensive, when if he is penniless there will scarcely be enough on hand besides his relatives to place him away decent. Talks cheap.

Col. Price in his talk at the court house last Friday night said that we were mistaken about the board of trustees not carrying out its contract in reference to the sale of the old academy which was added to in last week's issue. He said that the board was doing so at an expense of five hundred dollars. We are glad the trustees are more thoughtful of their obligation to the town than we had given them credit for. But still this doesn't do the little fellows any good. If the trustees would contribute or in other words refund to the town the amount of money they received from the sale of the old academy it would be less expense to the college and help considerably towards the erecting of another building where all the little ones could go to school like they do at a less, as the burden of the town tax payers.

The janitor of the college lives up so high on the hill that he looks over the sun when he goes to set the time piece and gets it an hour too slow sometimes.

If "The Lord is willing and the weather permits" we will be able to announce the wedding of one of Dahlonega's nicest and best young men next week.

Miss Dale Howell and Mr. Alfred Walker were wedded last Sunday morning by Squire G. D. Bruce, of Auraria. May the happy couple live long and prosper.

Miss Carrie Keenan, who resided over on the Chestate river, breathed her last on Saturday, leaving a number of relatives and many friends to mourn her departure.

Miss Bettie Ray, sister of Thomas Ray, residing a few miles out in the country, died Thursday last week of consumption, after an illness of about twelve months. The relatives of the deceased have our heartfelt sympathies.

We were asked last week where we got our information about the difficulty in Simblewill district which is said to be untrue. For the benefit of those concerned we will state that a couple of persons who said that they were present, gave us the information.

We told you last week that it would pay you to advertise in the NUGGET. Three weeks ago a gentleman of Dahlonega put a six line notice to creditors for these columns. The following week he received notice from a fellow in Texas who was owing him that he would settle off his account with him at a certain fixed time.

Greely Roberts has proved himself to be one of Dahlonega's most honest negroes. He and a certain girl had fixed up to be married last Sunday but when he went and asked the old man for her he objected and those that were expecting to attend the wedding were disappointed, as Greely couldn't get the girl without stealing her and this he said he would not do.

The other night some one tore up the sun dial at the college and threw a whole lot of wood into the well. Some thinks the parties have fled, while others believe that the mischief doers are still here. A reward has been offered and if they are caught while perpetrating such an act any more it will cause both joy and happiness. The one receiving the reward will be happy and the one doing the mischief will be troubled.

Some of those in this county who have "dabbled" with blockade liquor less have suffered most. We know of one man who engaged liquor for a friend one time here in Dahlonega, for which he was only paid a pair of birgos, had two cases made against him, one in the Federal and the other in the Superior Court. The one in the former was not pressed, and the case in the other cost his father $50, which amount was required to keep the defendant from wearing the ball and chain twelve months. Liquor will cause trouble. We know of another fellow who after being on a two weeks spree had to send for a doctor at an expense of $8. Besides this liquor is the means of many men losing good jobs, causing their wives and children to often suffer.

It seems that Sanfords bitters are giving some of the residents in the lower part of the county trouble. The other night two young men on the Calhoun who had filled up on the tonic remained from home until after dark. While wending their way homeward they came across a mud hole in the road from which they decided to absorb all the moisture with their new suits of clothes and sat down in the center to begin the work. While doing this they cut up their hats. After getting through they got up and resumed their journey. The distance was long and the evening chilly, which brought about such a change in their feelings that they had to call on a friend for handkerchiefs to tie up their heads and as so as to keep the frost from damaging these ornaments.

QUESTION.—I notice a great deal in the daily papers about the feasibility of our farmers being successful in the cultivation of beet sugar. What is your opinion on this subject, and would you advise a man who has suitable land to go into the business of cultivating beets for market?

ANSWER.—As sugar beet is only one of the many requirements for a full beet culture, we would not advise the venture if this is the only advantage possessed by the grower. First and foremost is a suitable and convenient market, then a knowledge of how to prepare for, plant, cultivate and sell the crop is absolutely indispensable. Granted these essentials, we should be able to produce our own supply of sugar, but, as with every other new enterprise, it is a mistake to rush in and undertake to carry it through before we are thoroughly prepared for the work. The signs of the times point to this as a new American industry, and as the Louisiana Experiment station says, we could reach an immense development of the sugar industry before we should be compelled by the magnitude of our home production to accept the price of the world at large. At any rate the American people seem determined to try the experiment of the beet sugar industry. The necessity of the margins in manufacturing in almost every district leads to the concentration of much attention in this industry, which seems to promise a profit to those who engage in it, or at least to promise a profit after the first year, due to bad management shall have been made. The industry is one suited to our soils and climate, is legitimate in every respect, and we trust that it will be encouraged that in time we will be able to fully supply our home market.—State Agricultural Department.

QUESTION.—I have been injured the animal very seriously and it is very painful. Would you advise that, where a large number of cows are kept, they should be dehorned?

ANSWER.—It has been conclusively demonstrated that if dehorning is properly done, and proper attention given to the animal afterwards, they experience little inconvenience and feel very little pain. We have known whole herds of grown animals dehorned, where scarcely an animal missed a feed, and the flow of milk was not perceptibly diminished. But every precaution was used to give as little pain as possible, and the most approved instruments were used. On the other hand, we have seen cattle die from the effects of cruelty and neglect. The best time for such work is in the mild weather of spring or fall. During hot weather the flies are troublesome and should be guarded against by smearing fat over the wounded part. In cold weather the cows should be well protected and cared for until they entirely recover from the operation. The best plan of dehorning is to apply a chemical dehorner to the "outlet" as soon as it appears on the calves, which is easily and cheaply done. On no account should one attempt to dehorn a grown animal, until he has previously seen the work properly done, and has the necessary suitable tools and appliances at hand for taking off the horns thoroughly and quickly.—State Agricultural Department.

QUESTION.—Please give me a good fertilizer for my potatoes, and will the same formula do for my early cabbage?

ANSWER.—A good fertilizer for potatoes should contain about 15 per cent of potash, 5 per cent of phosphoric acid, and 3 per cent of nitrogen. For early cabbages, 8 per cent of potash, 3 per cent of phosphoric acid and 5 per cent of nitrogen. We have here illustrated the principle that different crops, while they require the same elements, need these in different proportions. Were you to use the cabbage formula for your potatoes you would perhaps have vigorous plants with luxuriant foliage and but few tubers. The large amount of ammonia would stimulate a vigorous growth above ground, while the proportion of potash and phosphoric acid is not sufficient to form any considerable number of potatoes. On the contrary, cabbages are gross feeders and require heavy applications of nitrogen with smaller doses of potash and phosphoric acid.—State Agricultural Department.

QUESTION.—Is it too late to apply lime to my land? I shall I put on, and how much to the acre?

ANSWER.—As a general thing it is best to apply lime in the fall. It should be applied evenly to the surface of the fall plowed land. It will gradually sink into the soil and perform a wonderful work there. To all in its even distribution, on which much of its beneficial effect depends, a harrow should be run lightly over the land. There are exceptional cases in which the application may be made in the spring. For instance, if the soil is very sour, or if fertilizers without nitrogen are to be used. If nitrogenous fertilizers are to be used the lime should be applied in the fall. The usual rate is from one to two tons to the acre. On very dry, sandy soils smaller applications must be made than upon moist ones. Other things being equal, the productivity of the soil is in the measure, dependent on a certain percentage of lime.—State Agricultural Department.

THE NEW WAY.

WOMEN used to think "female diseases" could only be treated after "local examinations" by physicians. Dread of such treatment kept thousands of modest women silent about their suffering. The introduction of "Wine of Cardui" has now demonstrated that nine-tenths of all the cases of menstrual disorders do not require a physician's attention at all. The simple, pure taken in the privacy of a woman's own home insures quick relief and speedy cure. Women need not hesitate now. Wine of Cardui requires no humiliating examinations for its adoption. It cures any disease that comes under the head of "female troubles"—disordered menses, falling of the womb, whites, "change of life," breaks women beautiful by making them well. It keeps them young by keeping them healthy. $1.00 at the drug store.

No Excuse.

The president has no excuse for appointing black officials in the South, except the purpose of rewarding them for helping him to get his nomination for President, and of securing their help in getting a re-nomination in 1900. There are thousands of negro Republicans in Ohio and Pennsylvania. In neither of the foregoing states nor any other Northern state are negroes appointed postmaster, or to any other official position. And, why? Because the people of the Northern states would not submit to having negro officials at the head of prominent federal offices. Why then should the President expect the white people in the South to tamely acquiesce in the appointment of negroes to federal offices? He does not expect it. He knows what the feelings of the Southern people are in regard to this matter, but he prefers to pay his political debts rather than respect their wishes and feelings. And because he takes that position he is partly responsible for such crimes as that at Lake City. For weeks the people at Hogsaville, in this State have been without a postmaster, practically, because they refuse to patronize their postoffice as long as a negro is postmaster. Does the President pay any regard to their wishes in the matter? Not at all. He virtually says that the Hogsaville people must accept a negro postmaster or go without postoffice facilities. For the wishes of the people he has no consideration whatever. There is a prejudice against the Chinese and Congress shut them out of the country. There is a prejudice against negro office holders: why not keep them out of the office? Why let prejudice control in one case and not in the other? The McKinley Savannah News puts it. McKinley is practically responsible for the crimes that grow out of such appointments.—Marietta Journal.

Complexion of Congress.

The following is a complexion of Congress from a professional standpoint.

In the senate there are eighty-nine members with one vacancy from Oregon. A poll of the senate shows:

Lawyer 54, merchants 12, manufacturers 2, capitalists 1, planter and journalist 1, public officials 11, farmers 4, journalists 2, newspaper proprietors 1, retired 1. Total 80.

Republicans 46, Democrats 34, Populist 5, Independents 3, Silver party 2.

There are 357 members and 3 delegates in the lower house. Here is the way they are classified:

Lawyers 213, public officials 17, merchants 12, bankers 8, physicians 3, real estate 3, teachers 3, literature 2, clergymen 2, coal operators 2, pharmacists 1, coal dealer 1, farmers 20, manufacturers 11, journalists 10, editors 7, retired 3, lumbermen 3, insurance 3, mining 3, contractors 2, milling 2, laboring man 1, operator 1, printer 1, machinery 1. Not given 20.

The oldest member is Grow, of Pennsylvania, who is 75, and the youngest is Bradley, of New York, who is 28.

Do not borrow your neighbors' paper.

Don't Neglect Your Liver.

Liver troubles quickly result in serious complications, and the man who neglects his liver has little regard for health. A bottle of Brown's Iron Bitters taken now and then will keep the liver in perfect order. If the disease has developed, Brown's Iron Bitters will cure it permanently. Strength and vitality will always follow its use. Brown's Iron Bitters is sold by all dealers.

Whiskey.

To look at the name of whiskey it looks to be innocent, but it is not for it has caused thousands and thousands of men and boys to the unenviable deaths. It causes men and boys to use God's name in vain and many die with curses on their lips. It has caused fathers and mothers to bow their heads in shame; brothers and sisters to turn their heads with shame when their drunken father or brother; wives are made to bear many hardships on account of their drunken husbands. A great many women and children go hungry because father drinks, and a great many perish for want of bread.

It is disgraceful enough for men and boys to drink the fire-stuff, but when it comes to girls and women drinking, I cannot express its disgrace. But there are women who drink. A mother who has a house full of children and drinks, surely has a black heart, and has no love for her Maker. Parents, why do you set bad examples before your children? They say: "Papa or mamma did that and it won't hurt us," and so here they go, following right along in their parents' foot-steps. Parents, set good examples before your children; teach them what is right, teach them to love their Maker above all teach them to read the Bible, and to study its contents. Teach them to go to Sunday-school and see that they study their lessons. Teach them that the Savior died for their sins, and will save all that come to him. He refuses none who will his voice obey.

When parents set disgraceful examples before their children, they will live to see the fruits which spring from the seeds they have sown.

I will relate an accident that occurred to-day: Two brothers left home this morning, and were returning home after they had procured some of the poison, when one of them ran his horse against a tree, and was thrown off. He received some painful injuries, from which he may die.

The father had set the example before them.

When the trumpet, on the resurrection morning, shall sound, Oh, how many drunkards will rise to answer before the white throne.

HARRIET RUSK.

Arnold, Ga.

A schoolman showed a Sentinel man the following composition on "The Cow," which was handed her in class exercise by an up-to-date little miss: "The cow gives milk and eats grass and hooks people. He will hook dogs and the cow is an animal and he kicks hard when she gets mad than a baby with the colic and he gives us milk to drink and therefore the cow is a valuable animal when he don't have horns." Cordele Sentinel.

"An Alabama goat," says the Washington Post, "devoured the manuscript of a Populist statesman's speech and actually managed to digest it. Those experts who are trying to render our war vessels torpedo proof ought to be able to utilize the stomach of the goat."

In the spring the human body needs assistance to throw off the stagnation produced by winter diet. As the temperature rises under the growing heat of the sun's rays we feel tired, half sick and low in spirits because the blood is sluggish and full of impurities. Dr. J. H. McLean's Strengthening Cordial and Blood Purifier is a reliable spring remedy to invigorate the body and give tone to the digestion. Price 50c and $1 a bottle. At Moore & McGuire's.

Educational Items.

Every day should add something new to the outfit of the teacher, and with every day and every exercise should be enter upon his work with a distinct and clearly definite purpose—a full comprehension of what he designs to accomplish.

It may not be amiss to remember that the original of the word "moral" indicates a custom, a habit, printing is not so much to a philosophical belief as to the conduct of life. And it is for us to inquire, not whether we teach our pupils the views of this or that school, but whether they acquire a power of self-control, a command of their affections, passions and desires with the intent and will to direct them to the worthy ends. Whether with a true and honest purpose, they go forth from our doors faithful to the right, whether in regard for all that is ennobling, in courtesy to their equals in respect for their superiors, they leave us better than they came, or rather with a true respect for the rights of all, even their inferiors.

Faithful and efficient as the teacher may be there are influences and examples stronger than his and more enduring. The question of submission or lawlessness, of truthfulness or falsehood, of deceit or honesty, is decided, we believe for most children before they are supposed to be capable of understanding it."

Hevett says, "The getting of knowledge is an important part of school work, but it is not all, nor is it the most important. The development of power in all right directions is the main business of the school, and all knowledge obtained should be gained and used in such way as to help forward this growth of power."

Supt. Wernli, of Iowa, says, "The real true object of education is, to promote and secure the happiness of those we educate."

Torbell says, "We should teach pupils how to study. Teaching is not telling, it is furnishing the opportunity for the pupils mental action, improving him to that action, guiding him in it."

Our schools, in a certain sense, are now too good. As our teachers grow year by year more skillful and, therefore, more helpful, our pupils, with a therefore of almost equal force, grow more dependent.

Last Monday Milton, Mat and Joe Rogers and Clint Hughes were tried at Blue Ridge before Commissioners Chastain and Simmons, on a charge of conspiracy, they being previously arrested as the persons who did the shooting at the revenue officers some time ago. The three Rogers boys were released but Hughes was held for bond in the sum of $1,000, in default of which he was committed to Atlanta jail.—Pine County Herald.

GREAT OAKS

From little acorns grow, so also do fatal diseases spring from small beginnings. Never neglect symptoms of kidney troubles, if allowed to develop they cause much suffering and sorrow. Dr. J. H. Large and Still Growing.

Once more it is in order to rise and remark that this is a great country. We are feeding ourselves and millions of Europeans. We are underbidding English manufacturers of steel, and can send American tinware to Wales. For several years Uncle Sam's bicycles have added despair to British, German and French makers of wheels, and we sent abroad in 1897, horses and mules valued at $5,314,596. Finally there are a good many young men in this country having more money than brains, who are glad to pay four prices for "imported clothing," the wool for which is grown in American ranches, shipped to and sold at the Wool Exchange in New York, woven in mills having American machinery, and made by American tailors. Yes, this is a large land—it is still growing!—Wool Record.

Tales Told by Wrinkles.

A careful observer tells us that one's history can largely be told by wrinkles. Horizontal lines across the forehead are found even in children who are rickety of idiots, and being out in the sun with the eyes unshaded will produce them permanently, but they are natural at 40 or earlier.

Vertical lines between the eyes denote thought and study, since deep concentration contracts the eyebrows; grief and worry produce the same effect, and frequently repeated either leaves a permanent fold in the skin.

Arched wrinkles just above the nose indicate extreme suffering, either mental or physical.

The earliest wrinkles of all and the most unavoidable are those which run from either side of the nostril down to the mouth, and these are produced by smiling and even the motion of the jaws in masticating.

Down in the southern hemisphere it is now midsummer, and they are having a dose of it, notes the Toledo Blade, Australia is suffering under conditions of torridity which are intolerable. In different parts of that continent the temperature in the sun ranges from 110 to 150. People are dying of the heat, and vegetation is burning up. And this is the third year of such abnormal summer temperature at the antipodes. Some people are urging that this increased intensity of summer heat in Australia is part of a great climatic change in the southern hemisphere. There are no good grounds for so rash a generalization. There are no reports of abnormal warmth in any other section of that half of the world. But it is a legitimate conclusion that next summer is likely to be a hot one in the northern hemisphere. We may have a recurrence of the heat and dryness we experienced a few years ago in this latitude.

The aggregate bonded debt of American cities is $800,000,000; of English $1,025,000,000, and of French $649,000,000. Before these figures all but the hardened statistician stand dumb, says an exchange.

The success that has attended the use of Dr. J. H. McLean's Volcanic Oil Liniment in the relief of pain and in curing diseases which seemed beyond the reach of medicine, has been truly remarkable. Hundreds supposed to be crippled for life, with arms or legs drawn up, crooked or distorted, their muscles contracted disease, have been cured through the use of this remedy. Price 25c, 50c and $1.00 a bottle. At Moore & McGuire's.

Social Gayeties.

To be entertaining when one ought to be asleep. To eat sweets and salads when the stomach craves the simplest food or none at all. To laugh when one wants to cry. All this and much more society demands of her followers. What a strain on the nerves of delicate women!

The dreadful headaches. The crushing pains in the back and loins. The blues. All such symptoms indicate serious derangements of the delicate female organism, and must be overcome at once. Remove the cause. Strengthen exhausted nature.

Bradfield's Female Regulator is the standard remedy for the weaknesses and irregularities peculiar to women. Bradfield's Regulator is not a mysterious mixture of mythical origin, but a standard remedy compounded in accordance with scientific principles from approved vegetable medicinal materials. Bradfield's Regulator is endorsed by physicians who have examined it, and has been in successful use over a quarter of a century. It is sold by druggists at one dollar a bottle. "Perfect Health for Women" mailed free upon application.

THE ATLANTA (GA.) JOURNAL Daily and Weekly. Daily $5 a Year—Weekly 50 Cents a Year.

The Weekly Journal is a large paper, containing ten pages of seven columns each. It is filled with the LATEST NEWS of the day, both domestic and foreign. Owning its own leased telegraphic wires, which are used for no other purpose but to bring the latest news to its editorial room, the Journal is enabled to get all the news up to the latest moment.

In addition to the news, it contains more special features than any other southern weekly. Among other things it has a weekly letter or sermon from Rev. Sam Jones, a contribution from Hon. John Temple Graves, letters of travel, biographies of distinguished men, and many other attractive features.

The Weekly Journal is beautifully illustrated by its own artists. In fact neither engraving nor money is spared to make it the GREAT SOUTHERN WEEKLY.

Calendar Free. And the price is only FIFTY CENTS A YEAR. To every subscriber sending fifty cents for a year's subscription and a two-cent postage stamp extra (to pay postage) a beautiful lithographed calendar for 1898 will be sent free.

DAHLONEGA, GA., FR. 11, 1898.

Entered at the Dahlonega, Ga. P. O. as Second Class Matter.

Col. W. Clifton, is now Secretary of State.

The tax rate in Muscogee county will not exceed 20 cents on the $100 this year.

Senator Barner, candidate for Governor, makes his opening speech at Monticello to-morrow.

Col. Candler had better hold on to the office of Secretary of State. A bird in the hand is worth two in the bush.

Dr. E. F. Starr, for a long time a prominent physician of White county, died at Nacoochee one day last week.

A London paper declares that the United States cannot whip Spain on account of America's unprepared condition.

It is reported here that there are several cases of small pox at Nacoochee Valley, in White county, which was brought there by a gentleman who visited Tennessee recently.

A monster rifle passed through Atlanta last Sunday for Pensacola, Florida, weighing 67,000 pounds. It was a ten-inch bore breech loading rifle 34 feet long, to be used in the coast defense.

Sam Jones didn't remain in the gubernatorial race long. He can say what he pleases to the boys in the pulpit but when it comes to making a race for Governor he had to be more humble and it didn't suit him. So he retired from the race.

Col. Candler shot off his first political gun to his friends in Gainesville one night last week. He explained how he came to be a candidate and gave rings and clippings his special attention. The Colonel should remember that this "ring" defeated Gen. Evans and might do the same with him.

The Supreme Court has recently decided that the sale of liquor without license is punishable only by the courts of the state, and not by the recorder's or police courts.

Blockaders can come right into an incorporated town now without fear of interference. The grand jury of the Superior Court has to look after them.

The blockaders seem to keep Uncle Sam's men pretty busy just now causing these officials to have to keep on the go most of the time, giving them but little time to participate in any of the pleasures of life. Collector Rembert has been stationed at Dahlonega until Mr. Trammell can go to Rabun county and probably other places on a raid. Rabun county seems to be the center of attraction with them just at this time. The blockading business will be very profitable this year if the participants can escape the revenue officers, on account of its taking so much liquor for the candidates to influence the poor man to help them get into office.

Last week the Spanish authorities requested the recall of consul-general Fitzhugh Lee from Cuba and demanded that the supplies which are being sent from the United States to the starving people of the island be carried in merchant and not naval vessels, but President McKinley refused both these demands. Since that time Congress has appropriated $500,000 for war measures, and every vessel belonging to the U. S. is being put in trim while arrangements are being made to purchase others and have everything in readiness should war be declared. President McKinley will no doubt proclaim the independence of Cuba and then it will come. Atlanta will likely be headquarters for the land troops and commissary arrangements have already been in readiness since the first intimation of trouble to supply 500,000 men or even more if it is necessary.

The Solicitors Race.

Those not knowing would imagine that Col. Fletcher Johnson had no opponent, after reading the sort of made by the Constitution Gainesville correspondent the first of the week. Most of the statements made by the correspondent are false. He states that the grand juries of Hall, Rabun and Dawson endorsed Mr. Johnson unanimously for Solicitor General. We are informed that the members of the jury of his home county had a scramble over the matter. In Rabun county the vote only stood nine to three for Mr. Johnson, and in Dawson where this gentleman would carry as many as nine members of the jury at a time to the hotel and have them fed at his expense, didn't even mention his name in their presentations. They had other business to see after without making useless suggestions about any candidates interested. The grand juries do not elect the solicitors until the law is changed, and even if every jury in the circuit endorsed Mr. Johnson it won't amount to anything. Talk about your rings and clippings. They are nothing. Col. Charters will be on hand in due time, when the legislature convenes, with some documents to show to that body which will make its members blush with shame, and cause those jurors that have endorsed Mr. Johnson to want to crawl into a hole and pull the hole in after them.

The vertical system of writing has just been introduced into the college. No doubt this system will be universally used in a few years as it is now taught in the principal schools throughout the world.

The Phi Mu Society refused to take any part in the selection of the commencement orator, Rev. Sam Jones was selected by the Decora and Corona Societies.

Miss Eva McKee, of Dawson county not only led Freshman class last term, but she led the entire college. Smarter girls than Miss McKee never come to Dahlonega. Capt. Tillson's address at the college chapel Saturday night was practical, up-to-date, and full of instruction.

Last Saturday the subject for discussion in the Decora Society was: Resolved, That the education of the southern negro would prove beneficial to both whites and blacks of the South. Decision, in favor of the negative. The Phi Mu debated the subject: Resolved, That the works of nature are more attractive than the art of man. Decision was rendered in favor of the affirmative.

Tax Collector Makes a Final Settlement.

J. F. Sargent, Lumpkin county's tax collector, made a final settlement this week with both the state and county. His bondsmen didn't have to hang around and watch to keep him straight but he came right up and paid over every cent that was due, being much earlier than has been the custom of our collectors heretofore. The following statement shows what he has been doing:

Amount due county.....	$5,234.99

Mining Notes.

Mr. Inne, a German and two other gentlemen, after spending several days in prospecting on the Garnet property a few miles above Dahlonega, departed last week. What will be the result of their visit is unknown to us.

Mr. T. V. Cantrell, of White county, has been employed to make an addition to the Singleton by putting in ten more stamps, making 20 in all. The mill was purchased in Cincinnati and received this week. This is sufficient proof that the mine is paying its owners. Several hands are employed prospecting on the Mary Henry. Quite a quantity of paying ore has already been discovered.

The Trustees of the College met last Friday to consider a proposition which had been made for the purchase of the Calhoun mine which belongs to this institution.

Mr. F. S. Packard, of Sturges, Mich., arrived at the Turkey Hill mine one day last week. This valuable property is owned by Mr. Packard, but the object of his visit is not now known to the writer just now.

Mrs. J. Worley has been unwell for some time.

A Wonderful Discovery.
The last quarter of a century records many wonderful discoveries in medicine, but none that have accomplished more for humanity than that sterling old household remedy, Brown's Iron Bitters. It cures the most stubborn cases of general debility, and neither man, woman or child can take it without deriving the greatest benefit. Brown's Iron Bitters is sold by all druggists.

College News.

A supply of new sashes and one new sword have just been received. Each of the commissioned officers has been allowed a new sash and Capt. Bell sports the new sword. This beautiful, shining sword with its attachment whistle caused Capt. Bell to present the appearance of Gen. Lee.

Cadet L. P. Sosebee has been promoted musician.

The long-looked for ink wells have come at last. This adds another convenience to the college for those students who study penmanship.

The vertical system of writing has just been introduced into the college. No doubt this system will be universally used in a few years as it is now taught in the principal schools throughout the world.

The Phi Mu Society refused to take any part in the selection of the commencement orator, Rev. Sam Jones was selected by the Decora and Corona Societies.

Decision, in favor of the negative. The Phi Mu debated the subject: Resolved, That the works of nature are more attractive than the art of man. Decision was rendered in favor of the affirmative.

A full supply of ammunition has just been received for the military department. Target practice will begin soon and some steady nerve cadet will have an opportunity to deck himself with a gold medal.

Hon. F. C. Tate, a former student of the college who now represents in Congress, has given a gold medal to the college. At each commencement the medal will be received by the member of the graduating class who makes the best record in science during the college course. Students entering above Junior class not allowed to contest.

The Honor Roll for February is as follows: Senior class: Miss Hattie Rogers.

Freshman class: Miss Eva McKee, S. A. Harris, G. L. Patterson, J. W. West.

"A" class: R. D. Love, W. J. McKee, A. G. McDonald, W. J. Shahan, Lee Sosebee, L. P. Sosebee, J. D. Twitty.

"B" class: M. W. Grant, Miss Estelle Harris.

The contract for building the dormitory has been let out to four carpenters. They have contracted to build it for $1013.94. The building is to be one story high, twenty-four feet wide and 146 feet long with a porch on each side and an eight foot hall in center. It will contain twenty-four rooms and will be located on the lower edge of the drill field. Messrs. Cook, Richmond, Riccetti and Strickland have the contract and the building will go up at once. When finished the rooms will be fitted up with all a student needs and he will be able to take a college course upon small means. The trustees furnish the doors, sash and hardware.

The petition of Col. H. P. Farrow, asking the ordinary to grant him permission to construct a telephone line along the public road from the Hall county line to Porter Springs, was granted last Monday. In a few months you will be able to sit down at this great watering place and hollow "hollow" to Gainesville, a distance of more than twenty-five miles, which will be a great convenience to the summer visitors who always visit the Queen of the Mountains every season.

Mr. Whorton, who has eye on the Calhoun property, has returned to Dahlonega.

A NEW TRIUMPH.

The Dreaded Consumption Can Be Cured.

T. A. Slocum, the Great Chemist and Scientist, Will Send to Sufferers, Three Free Bottles of His Newly Discovered Remedies to Cure Consumption and All Lung Troubles.

Nothing could be fairer, more philanthropic or carry more weight than the generous offer of the honored and distinguished chemist, T. A. Slocum, M. C., of New York City.

He has discovered a reliable and absolute cure for consumption, and all bronchial, throat, lung and chest disease, attention careful, general decline and weakness, loss of flesh and all conditions of wasting away; and to make its great merit known will send three free bottles of his newly discovered remedies to any afflicted reader of the NUGGET.

Already his new scientific system of medicine has permanently cured thousands of apparently hopeless cases.

The Doctor considers it not only his professional, but his religious duty—a duty to which he owes to suffering humanity—to donate his infallible cure.

He has proved the "dreaded consumption" to be a curable disease beyond a doubt in any climate and has on file in his American and European laboratories thousands of "heartfelt testimonials of gratitude" from those benefited and cured, in all parts of the world.

Catarrhal and pulmonary troubles lead to consumption, and consumption, uninterrupted, means speedy and certain death. Don't delay until it is too late. Simply write T. A. Slocum, M. C., 98 Pine street, New York, giving express and postoffice address, and the free medicine will be promptly sent. Please tell the Doctor you saw his offer in the NUGGET, Jan. 28.

The State Sunday School Convention convenes at Gainesville April 18, 19 and 20. Superintendents of Sunday Schools are requested to elect delegates and send their names to J. H. Miller, Marietta, Ga.

An Uncertain Disease.
There is no disease more uncertain in its nature than dyspepsia. Physicians say that the symptoms of no two cases agree. It is therefore most difficult to make a correct diagnosis. No matter how severe, or under what diseases-dyspepsia attacks you, Brown's Iron Bitters will cure it. Invaluable in all diseases of the stomach, blood and bowels. Brown's Iron Bitters is sold by all druggists.

Diseases of the Blood and Nerves.
No one need suffer with neuralgia. This disease is quickly and permanently cured by Brown's Iron Bitters. Every disease of the blood, nerves and stomach, chronic or acute, is cured by Brown's Iron Bitters. Known and used for nearly a century, it stands today foremost among our most valued remedies. Brown's Iron Bitters is sold by all druggists.

Col. Huff and family visited Murrayville last Saturday.

Capt. Hall now owns the Smith farm down at New Bridge which was sold the first Tuesday in this month.

Among the visitors this week were John Gaston, of Gainesville; David McKee, James and Egbert McClure, of Dawson county.

Miles Stargel, son of J. C. Stargel, who has been sick at his home over on the Chastee river, is rapidly recovering and will soon be able to attend college again.

Frank Harris rallied off his bicycle last Saturday afternoon and little Claud Gurley was the lucky winner, which cost him only twenty-five cents. Clauds happiness can better be imagined than described.

Merchant T. S. Littlefield is going to move to Gainesville in a few days and requests us to state that those needing any goods can get them by calling at his store at once. Those due him are requested to call and settle at once.

At the Ordinary's Court last Monday the will of the late Dr. B. F. Chapman was proved and Mrs. Josephine R. Chapman qualified as executrix. The will was probated in solemn form. Mrs. Sarah Meaders was granted a years support out of the estate of L. Q. Meaders.

James Ridley, who recently made application for the Yahoola post office, sent his bond on to the department last Saturday and it won't be long now until the people up there will have more convenient mail facilities which they have been deprived of so long.

Revs. W. C. Stargel and J. B. Brown, the two recently selected census enumerators of this county, have received their blanks and will begin work next Monday, and pretty soon we will know the number of children in Lumpkin county between the ages of six and eighteen.

Mr. W. J. Burt, the post master at Burtshoro, spent several hours in the city last Saturday, being the first time he has been here for some time, being compelled to remain at home on account of sickness. But Mr. Burt has recovered and is now enjoying better health than he has for a long time.

The town school commissioners met and organized last Tuesday night. Col. W. Charters was elected Chairman; H. D. Gurley, Secretary and J. F. Moore, Treasurer. They are now looking out a location for two school houses, then the next thing will be an election for bonds so as to secure the money to build and equip them.

Mr. E. Carroll, who came from White county and located in Dahlonega several months ago, is talking about pulling up stakes and moving down to Gainesville. The gentleman has no one to share his troubles and if any of the ladies in that city desire a clever man for a life mate they could not do better in a selection than to take Mr. Carroll.

There seems to be a drag in the school interests in this county, numbers of parents refuse to send their children to school when the state proposes to partially educate them all free of charge. In eight localities in Lumpkin county teachers have been compelled to close the school house doors on account of non attendance. How to remedy this is puzzling the board of education.

Old man Franklin, who left our town some time ago, has returned. He seems to find no place that suits him like Dahlonega. For a number of years he and his family have picked about all the berries that have been canned in Dahlonega, and if not providentially hindered they will be here ready for the business the coming season again. The old man is in his eightieth year and walked 35 miles on Thursday of last week.

Miss Sallie Reid's letter will appear next week.

Mrs. John Huff was up on a visit from the Calhoun last Tuesday.

The Willow post office has been moved from the old Tate place to T. A. P. Tates, near the Jones bridge.

Col. J. H. Moore and Mr. Walker have returned from Canton. The Colonel was accompanied by his wife and daughter.

We always believed that a married woman in the spring of the year could accomplish more good by taking a hoe and giving lessons in the garden than sitting down wasting away her time in reading an old novel.

A. S. Wheelchels boy, who has been hiding out from home was captured by his father one day last week and carried home. The lad had got into something that he ought not have done and his father meant to punish him for it.

If we had an attack of the grip we couldn't keep from laughing when a duded, walking along the streets dressed up in a pair of specks, gloves and walking cane loses one of his garters. It brings about such a sudden change in his appearance.

Under the recent decision of the Supreme Court liquor could be sold in Dahlonega provided the ordinary would grant the license, but we hope that there will never be one elected to the office that will do such a thing. There is already enough sold on the sly to keep the courts running.

We publish this week the announcement of J. M. Davis, who is a candidate for the office of sheriff of Lumpkin county. Every body knows Jim. He has been making a living down on Col. Bakers farm by the sweat of his brow. Jim is clever both at home and abroad and is going to make the track warm for the boys.

Cage Seabolt, a resident of Yahoola district aged about 30, is a man of a family and was never out of the county in his life and says that he never intends to go out, besides this he says that he never lost a days work from sickness in his life. What a happy thought it is to live in a land that is so healthy and desirable; a place where a man is willing to remain a lifetime without desiring to even make a visit to see if there are any better localities.

For years and years it has been rumored that a large amount of money had been buried by the Indians on the property of Y. G. Abercrombie over in Wahoo district in Lumpkin county, ten miles east of Dahlonega. Many fruitless searches have been made by citizens in that community for the hidden treasure left by the red man. The other day Mr. Abercrombie decided that he would go out and make another search. He was not long in finding the supposed place but the money was not there. In turning over a large rock he discovered an opening walled up with rock and from it he removed a jar, a stone Indian pipe and tomahawk. It is now believed that some one had found the money and left the other articles so as to remove suspicion.

Mr. J. H. Moore, of Dahlonega, was wedded in Dawson county last Wednesday to Miss Minnie McClure, Rev. D. M. Edwards performing the ceremony. The bride is the daughter of Mr. R. B. McClure, the ex-representative of Dawson, and is one of the most popular and beautiful young ladies in that whole section, while the groom stands foremost among the leading young men of Dahlonega whose friends are numbered by the hundreds throughout the county, as an evidence of which he has been elected to the office of clerk of the Superior Court, twice in succession, the last time without any opposition. We wish the happy couple a long journey in life, and trust that they will be met by no unfortunate accidents on the way, and that nothing but peace, happiness and prosperity will attend them on every hand.

Our patrons will please not bring any more wood for the present.

Our old roller is like the broken down politician. It has lost its grip, but will be made good by next weeks issue.

T. B. Barret, of Wahoo district was in Dahlonega last Saturday and stated that he had a notion of making the race for county treasurer.

Since a new saw mill has been put in operation in Nimbellew district only a short time ago, a number of citizens out there are preparing to build comfortable plank houses.

The Dahlonega District Preachers meeting will be held at Dahlonega April 5th to 8th. Every pastor and local preacher in the district is requested to be present by the Presiding Elder. Send your name to Rev. W. H. Cooper, Dahlonega, Ga.

Col. Charters returned from Rabun Superior Court last Saturday. The grand jury endorsed his opponent over there but this doesn't spell any thing. There is a higher tribunal that passes upon this matter than the Rabun county grand jury.

John Davis, who is engaged in mining up in White county, was in our office last Monday making arrangements for the NUGGET to keep him posted, said that the small pox scare at Nacoochee, from what he could learn, was nothing more than the chicken pox.

Ned Parks, who has been located in Dahlonega for several months, sold out all his household and kitchen furniture this week and left to better his condition in Oklahoma. Ned has been wanting to go there a long time and nothing but the trip will satisfy him.

We are informed that the hind wheels of the Garmon wagon, which was constructed more than fifty years ago, are still good and doing heavy work out in Nimbellew district hauling stock to a saw mill. They hold up a stock which requires four steers to pull it.

Young Mr. Grizzle who indulged in too much "tob" at Turkey Bill Postell's speaking in Yahoola district the other day, had to go before the members of his church at Bethlehem last Saturday and make acknowledgements which makes him a member in just as good standing now as before according to the Baptist doctrine.

The population of Dahlonega is rapidly increasing. Two little boys and one girl were among the new arrivals last week. One little gentleman stopped with T. F. Jackson, the other with J. B. Honsley and the little girl made her headquarters at Prof. Vickers. It is useless to state that they made all three of the households pleasant and happy.

Will Waters of Nimbellew district, who has a case booked against him in the U. S. Court in Atlanta for blockading was in Dahlonega last Saturday and Sunday, who stated that he is going to plead guilty when a bill is found and serve it out like a man, quit the business and devote the rest of his time to farming. If he had made up his mind to do this a few months ago it would have saved him from spending several months in Fulton county jail, being of no benefit to himself nor any one else.

The revenue officials of Dahlonega have been giving the blockaders of Dawson county their special attention during the past few days. Two large distilleries have been destroyed in our sister county which have brought about the usual trouble. The first one visited last Friday was deserted by its operators in quick haste when they saw the officials approaching. The other distillery was visited last Monday morning where James Lingerfelt and his wife were discovered tilling hogs to the concern where a run had been made on Sunday. The woman was let go her way and the man was brought to town where he had a trial and was bound over and made bond.

Capt. Ingersoll has a half Jersey heifer three years old that weighs 1,175 pounds.

Rev. J. B. Brown and T. H. Worley will hold services next Sunday at Jones' Chapel at 11 o'clock.

Mr. Robertson, an Englishman interested in mining in White county, spent last Saturday night in Dahlonega.

Revs. Mr. Phillips and Mat Grizzle preached at Bethlehem church three miles above Dahlonega last Sunday. Some people went from town to hear them.

Don't waste an hour in writing out a Justices Court summons when you can get them already on hand at this office nicely printed for one cent each.

Married at the brides father, in Davis' district on Friday evening last, Miss Ola, daughter of Mr. C. W. Dotson to Mr. Aey Clements, Rev. W. T. Dowdy performing the ceremony. We wish them both a long and prosperous life.

From now until the election is over every public gathering and place of worship in the country will be visited largely by the candidates, and if you need any money for any thing all you have to do is to pass around the contribution basket and you will get it even if it has to borrow it.

It is said that some of the young lads of Dahlonega were on the war path Saturday night and made an effort to devour Ben Whitmore without sugar or salt, when Marshal Davis came up and prevented the total destruction of Ben. Mayor Price can adjust all such matters as this when called upon.

The main part of the old Joe Parker building, which was erected a half century ago, has been torn down by the recent purchaser Mr. Wins Bruce, who will occupy the two small rooms until a new one can be built. The property only cost Mr. Bruce $700, but by the time he gets done improving it it will doubtless be worth three times as much.

Some of the candidates may expect the support of the printer without making any announcement in his paper but they will find out better later on. A man that is so stingy to risk $3 on his race hasn't much hopes of success. We do not propose to sell out for this amount of money but all printers have been taught to be governed by the golden rule.

Don't send your job work out of the state to have it done because it can be printed a little cheaper than at home or in Georgia. This has been done by some of our county officers. The people of the county have given you an office that supports you, all of whom should be patronized in preference to outsiders. Give this some thought, please.

Ex-U. S. Deputy Marshal Harrison seems to be a very important witness in the U. S. Court in Atlanta and will be apt to be on hand as he has 18 subpoenas against blockaders of this section who have not been fortunate enough like some that we could mention.

John Moore has had a good deal of trouble in the past but now that he has married the scale will turn and the pleasures of his future life will, we hope, overbalance all of his troubles. One day last week something happened to him that was worse than getting on the wrong shift or having his costly seed potatoes cooked up. His watch got so it would n't run which was carried to the jeweler, Mr. McGuire, with instructions to put the time keeper in good order while the owner went about his business. Mr. McGuire removed several parts of the watch until he got down to the spring which showed that it had not been wound up. The workman hunted up Mr. Moore who he promised that he would not tell it on him for a few days.

City Marshal Davis is engaged now in improving the streets and side walks.

Mrs. I. W. Waddell left this week for Marietta where she expects to remain several days.

Lon Bruce has moved to the house vacated by Ned Parks this week for the purpose of running a boatling house.

The membership of the Temperance Union was strengthened last Sunday night by the addition of new names, some who have been in the habit of drinking all their lives. It is hoped that they will stick to that their pledge which will result in much good in the end to their children that are growing up.

At a regular meeting of the town council last Monday an order was passed requiring all encroachments on the calaboose property to be removed at once. It is a great pity but what every council could see alike. If they could a good deal of unnecessary work would be saved. A former council granted Mr. Gurley certain privileges on this property, which if they had not been permitted at the start it would have saved him from paying out extra money to make the desired changes now.

It becomes our duty this week to chronicle another death in Dahlonega. Mrs. Amanda Brooksher after being sick about three weeks, breathed her last on the morning of the 8th inst. After the death of her daughter less than one month ago, she went to bed after returning from the cemetery and never arose again. Her husband, Uncle Tommie, passed away several years ago. The deceased was between sixty and seventy years of age, who leaves a son and many friends to mourn her sad departure.

Abbot, the school teacher who we mentioned a couple or three weeks ago as having left Davis' district without settling off his board bill at Mr. Jos. Riders, returned a few days ago and will likely spend another month with Mr. Rider if he will let him, and go off owing the gentleman for two months board instead of one. Before he left out he had a school of about twenty-five scholars, having only taught them half a day. He says now that he will finish it up in the fall. Quite likely he is a better hand to devour Mr. Riders food than he is to teach his children.

We understand that certain members of the council are opposed to working out streets that have not been accepted by the town, although all former councils have kept them up. If this plan is adopted it will work a hardship on those living on the outskirts of the town. They have to pay their part of the taxes the same as if they lived on some front street. It doesn't look like justice to make those living off from the square a peace to have to keep up main streets and not be granted such privileges on their own. All the citizens cannot live right in town.

Wm. Ricketts had a gathering of friends and some music at his house the other night at which time some of the boys danced a little. A drunken person who was in no way connected with the amusements going on in the house, met another fellow in the street in front of the door and cursed him out and Mr. Ricketts has to bear the blame when he nor any of those at his house had anything to do with it. Complaint was made to the marshal who we guess was told just what we have stated. As far as dances are concerned we have them frequently in our end of town where they rip, quarrel, snort and shake their feet all night. Besides this the mouth of the jail sewer has been turned out into the street for near two years, and we don't grumble. If we do it doesn't cause any changes to be made. Doubtless if any of the members of the aristocratic club had been present on this occasion you would not even hear it mentioned except in a pleasant way.

Isaac Rucker was only ordained for a deacon, and not a preacher, as was stated in our last issue.

Mr. James V. Harrison's father returned to his home in Tennessee last Tuesday after spending eight or ten days in Dahlonega.

We had the pleasure of shaking the hand of Mr. John Siegal, of Emerson, last Friday, who has been here several days on business.

Nice bright dress plaids, 5 cents per yard, brass shoe sprigs 4 cents per paper, and a brand new Singer sewing machine, five drawers, for $17.87.

B. R. MEADERS & SONS.

Robt. Wells, formerly of Lumpkin county, died in Gainesville on Wednesday night of last week of pneumonia. His remains were brought up to Aquaria and buried by the side of his father, E. R. Wells, who departed only a few months ago.

John Pilgram of White county, and had luck last week. He came down to testify against another man who had been blockading and got into it himself by the defendant swearing that he was also interested in the distillery himself, which resulted in John going to jail in default of a bond.

We are requested to state that Dr. Jesse A. Reid, of Acworth, will visit Dahlonega on the third Monday in April and remain for a few days for the purpose of practicing dentistry. He will be prepared to do all kinds of work, and perform any operations pertaining to his profession.

We are glad to state that ender Peck of Dalton, who has been sick for several days is recovering. His father and mother are still with him. Dr. Peck has made many acquaintances since being in our midst and we are all glad to have him visit us. He is a clever, sociable gentleman and well posted on all matters of interest.

Col. W. A. Charters is now the possessor of a Baptist Church, which was recently purchased from Mrs. Millie Patton, and, as has been stated heretofore, was erected on the wrong lot, and had become the property of Mrs. Patton in this way. Some of the members of this church were in town last week endeavoring to get enough money contributed for the purpose of purchasing it from the Colonel, so as to enable them to commence serving the Lord in it at an early day.

Sheriff Brooksher planted his garden several days ago, aiming to have as early vegetables this year as any one in town. Last Saturday Jack Stricklands old sow and pigs got into his garden while all the family were out in town on a visit and raised the garden stuff much earlier than Mr. Brooksher expected. The citizens in the outskirts of the town have to keep up their own hogs and fences but have no protection from others under the hog ordinance. But few days pass but what we see hogs running out in the edge of town.

Squire Worley issued a warrant last Friday afternoon against Ed. Austin, one of the fanciest negroes in town, who is charged with slandering by Mrs. Tessie Owens a resident of Last Chance. Ed. made some slight remarks about Mrs. Owens recently in the store of Jones & Brooksher which reached her ears causing her to pursue this course. The trial was set for the next afternoon but Ed. decided to have examination and make bond for his appearance at the Superior Court. Mrs. Owens came to town at the time fixed for the trial with a large well loaded revolver in her hand, which she said she meant to use if the negro said a word against her, and she would have done so no doubt as she is one of the most determined women in town when she sets her head. The negro was told to go another way while the sheriff and the Squire had Mrs. Owens to go into the formers office and unload the weapon. Ed. will no doubt find out before the matter is ended that it will not do to talk about white women.

FARMERS SHOULD NOT BE FOOLED

NESBITT'S WARNING NOTE

Commissioner of Agriculture Exposed the Old Game That Is Being Played to Induce Planting of a Big Crop. An Appeal For Diversification and Smaller Area.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE, ATLANTA, March 1, 1908.

COTTON.

It is to be hoped that no sensible farmer will be misled into the oft repeated mistake of planting a ruinously heavy cotton crop, by the recent expected and predicted rise in the cotton market. Surely that game has been played often enough and we have learned its meaning!

Concentration should always be the watchword among farmers, that is, the aim should be to cultivate only so much land as we can thoroughly manage, and from which we can obtain the largest yield at the smallest cost. But just now, it is even more important than usual, that we do not waste our time and money and weaken our strength by spreading out our farm operations over a larger area than we can do justly or then will pay expenses. Cotton planting time is fast approaching, and the price of cotton has advanced more than half a cent! This is the usual program, and at this hopeful season of the year, many an otherwise sensible man, who has seen in better plans seed in this improved price reason for breaking his good resolutions. Instead of apportioning a fair amount of his land and time and labor to cotton and the remainder to the comforts and independence of farm life, he resolves to try the all cotton plan again another year and trust to luck, or his time account with his merchant, for the balance. By "all cotton" we do not mean that he will be so foolish as to actually plant his whole farm in cotton, but that he will give his main energies and his best lands to this crop. How many a man is now taking this step, thus preparing for a fall to hand struggle against desperate odds from start to finish! In his case the minor crops, which mean so much to family comfort, as well as to family income, must necessarily be reduced or altogether abandoned. The vegetable garden, the orchard, the dairy, the smokehouse, the poultry yard, all must suffer, while the staple provision crops, corn, wheat, oats, potatoes, cane, all must, in a measure, give place to the predominating all absorbing daily struggle for an increased number of cotton bales. This course is simply playing into the hands of the speculator. The certainty of a big cotton crop will not only prevent any considerable rise in present prices, but will tend to keep market prices depressed while any indication that the farmers are determined on a reduced area would at once send prices up. Cannot farmers realize that they hold the key to their own prosperity, and that success the coming year lies only in smaller cotton crop and ample provisions for man and beast? The little experience of the past year, and the claims now being sounded from one end of the south to the other, should surely warn him of his danger. For his own sake, and for the prosperity of the country at large, we trust the warning will be heeded before it is too late.

WHAT OUR CROPS NEED.

Our crops need three main elements, nitrogen, phosphoric acid and potash. Different crops use these elements in different proportions, but there is no crop that we grow which does not require them in greater or less degree.

WHAT OUR LANDS NEED.

The crying need of most of our lands is humus, that is, decaying vegetable matter, by which we enable the crops to appropriate the three needed chemical elements to the best advantage.

HOW SHALL WE OBTAIN THESE?

The all important humus must be supplied from the farm by the use of stable manures, composts, by plowing under the various forms of vegetable and animal matter, which accumulates from year to year, and last but not least, by leguminous crops. These, when properly managed, perform three important offices. They gather the unused nitrogen from the air, deposit it in the soil, and also help to collect the stores of potash and phosphoric acid lying dormant in most soils. They furnish a crop rich in food constituents. When this is taken off the land, what is left of stubble and roots lays a foundation for the humus, which every experienced farmer knows, is the factor above all others which makes successful farming possible. Having by such means obtained the necessary humus and nitrogen it remains for us to secure needed potash and phosphoric acid. These may be supplied in part by deep fall plowing, bringing up a little of the subsoil, giving deeper each year, and by the use of lime and fine pulverization of the soil during cultivation, both of which enable it to hold moisture and rich convert its elements to the use of growing crops. If when the leguminous crops are planted they are given the necessary amount of phosphoric acid and potash for their best development, say 200 to 400 pounds to the acre, not only will the leguminous powers be increased, but when the stubble and roots are plowed in, much of these natural elements will remain and be just in right condition to be taken up by the following crop. This is the most economical and at the same time the most profitable plan for our worn soils. Commercial fertilizers, when used alone on such lands, act only as a temporary stimulant. The rotation, which leguminous crops require, will gradually lead to the diversified farming so much to be desired. Diversified farming, which is economical and profitable, is what Georgia and the south so sorely need.

Make the Best of Things.

CLARKSBORO, GA., Mr. T. ED. NUGGET:—
I would like to talk to the readers of the NUGGET along the line of making the best of things. For you can scarcely understand how many sweet pleasures he in simply making the best of things.

If we imagine for one moment that we are going to make things concur with our wishes and desires, we will at once find obstacles in the way. The habit of always looking on the bright side of our troubles, is invaluable. If you haven't the things you want, and none of us have, just do the best you can without. Grumbling don't get it by any means.

The wisest and best course to pursue is to look on the sunny side of life and get out of it all the pleasures you can. If you don't you make yourself miserable and all around you so. There are many things here in this world to make one happy. God didn't put us here to be miserable, and if we are it is our own fault. We all have some dark gloomy days in a life time, but if we do, hope will bid us struggle on, and as we look forward into the future hope points us to brighter days dawning in the future.

It is well to remember that fortune is like the summer days, sometimes pleasant, sometimes stormy. Many who have much to be thankful for are full of complaint.

It is better to take things calmly and be content with our station in life. We may add some days of sunshine to our path if we earnestly endeavor to dispel the clouds of discontent that arise in our bosom and enjoy the bountiful blessings that God gives His humble creatures. Times are hard but it will not make them any better to wear a gloomy countenance. The sky is blue nine times where it is black once. You have troubles and disappointments. So have others. None, no not one, is entirely free from them. Perhaps it is well that none should be. For the better must come before the sweet and make the sweet sweeter. And I think that it is the duty of every one to enjoy all the happiness and pleasures they can. And above all, look on the bright side. What if things are gloomy? The lane will turn "by and by" and night will end in broad day.

SALLIE REID.

Col. Farrow obtained from the Court of Ordinary of Lumpkin County last Monday a permit to erect his Telephone line on the right of way of the public roads of that County, similar to that obtained recently in this County. He expects to obtain a similar permit in White and Dawson counties at an early day, as his scheme includes both those counties. We learn from him that he will solicit "talking stock," which will entitle those subscribing to talk free and unlimited for one year over this line or any of its branches, and the amount subscribed not due till he has completed the construction of the line and has it in successful operation.—Eagle.

The success that has attended the use of Dr. J. H. McLean's Volcanic Oil Liniment in the relief of pain and in curing diseases which seemed beyond the reach of medicine, has been truly remarkable. Hundreds supposed to be crippled for life, with arms or legs drawn up, crooked or distorted, their muscles contracted and their bodies cured through the use of this remedy. Price 25c, 50c and $1.00 a bottle. At Moore & McGuire.

GOLD IN ALABAMA.

What a White County Citizen Has to say About an Alabama Mine.

JACKSON'S GAP, ALA., Mr. J. ED. NUGGET:—

I have decided to write a few lines to let the people of Lumpkin and White counties know my whereabouts, and know what I am doing down here in Alabama. I am now following my old trade digging for the yellow stuff called gold, and if I don't hurry I will not get done soon, as I have found a new field to work in sure. The mine is located two miles from the railroad, which will have a heavy ton stamp mill 700 lbs. to the stamp, 3 forty horse power boilers, 75 horse power engine, two hoisters, one dynamo for lighting up the mines and a lot of other machinery with two pumps to supply water for our works. So, in a short while the people of this section will hear the music of a stamp mill, and I think it will be the first in life. It is amusing to hear the questions these good people will ask about mining. Every conceivable sort of questions can be thought of. The visitors will ask "where is the gold?" Thought you pilled it out on the bank of the cut till night," &c., &c.

Just think of mining amidst a lot of folks that never saw any thing of the kind, then double your imagination about four times and you may get a faint idea of how it is but I don't believe you will. Though I can stand the interrogatory very well for I never saw a more kind and helpful people in my life. They are willing to do any favor in their hands of reason, and all want us to make a success at mining.

This section of country looks like that around Dahlonega, though it is much lower and of course more flat. There are small hills but no mountains. The woods are full of long leaf pines with trees in the swamps. I am about four miles from the Tallapoosa river. It is the Hightower or Etawah in Lumpkin. So if you will look at the map you can see that I am not far, if at all, off of the Dahlonega and White gold belt. I never saw so much quartz as where before. The whole surface is literally covered with pretty looking ore for several miles around, but I have not had time to prospect any yet. I don't know whether they all carry gold or not. Though some do for I have found samples.

The vein at this mine is from one to six feet thick and averages from $40 to $75 per ton and pans very nicely of free gold. There is a good lot on gold also in the sulphides. We are going to use concentrating tables and treat the concentrates. I can see the gold in the ore. We want to wake up the people of this place by opening up a good mine and show them what they have been sleeping on. Most of the people here are farmers and have no knowledge of mining. King cotton has its iron heel on the farmers necks. It would be a big show to the people of your section to see the amount of coal that is shipped over the road to Georgia.

You will probably hear from me again.

J. M. GALBREATH.

An Old Idea.
Every day strengthens the belief of eminent physicians that impure blood is the cause of the majority of our diseases. Twenty-five years ago this theory was used as a basis for the formula of Brown's Iron Bitters. The many remarkable cures effected by this famous old household remedy are sufficient to prove that the theory is correct. Brown's Iron Bitters is sold by all dealers.

A Large Number of Pension Applicants will have to Wait.

"It seems that the appropriation of $690,000 by the last legislature for pensions for crippled and indigent confederate soldiers and indigent widows of soldiers is not sufficient to satisfy the demands of all who have a legal claim to share in these benefits.

Judging from a letter received yesterday by Ordinary Wiley from Commissioner of Pensions Richard Johnson, there will be little money left for many of these more recent claims. The letter of the commissioner gives some idea of the extent to which the pension business has been carried in this state. It is as follows:

"In answer to many inquiries as to the payment of unenrolled claims, the following statement is made:

"In all probability all widows' claims meeting the requirements of the law, will be paid.

"The only fund available to pay unenrolled soldiers' claims, both invalid and indigent, is such as may be left after paying the respective rolls of 1897. What such margin may be cannot be determined until the rolls are paid, and every enrolled claim should be in this office not later than the 15th of March (as was stated in the circular sent out on December 18th last), after that date they will be treated as dead, though they will be paid if received before the funds are exhausted.

"It is estimated that 150 new claims can be put on the invalid roll, of which 130 were approved in December last, leaving twenty other places for which they are now on file about 250 applications.

"It is also estimated that 250 new indigent claims can be enrolled. There will likely be more than 3,000 of such applications.

"You can, therefore, see how slender the chances to pay new claims of either class.

"The examination of new claims was not finished in 1897 until July, and it will probably take as long this year."—Macon Telegraph.

Don't.

Don't judge the liquor by the fancy bottle.

Don't try to unlock a door with a key stone.

Don't drink imported wine in order to drown domestic troubles.

Don't think every man's name is Mud because he is short of dust.

Don't call your grocer a man of grit. He may think you refer to his sugar.

Don't let a man persuade you it is better to smoke a cheap cigar than none at all.

Don't fail to keep your temper. Other people never appreciate tempers as a gift.

Don't fail to lay up something for a rainy day even if it's nothing more than a borrowed umbrella.

Don't worry if you fail to get into society. The oyster is often present at a society function when he would doubtless prefer to be at his home in his bed.

In the spring the human body needs assistance to throw off the stagnation produced by winter diet. As the temperature rises under the growing heat of the sun's rays we feel tired, half sick and low in spirits because the blood is sluggish and full of impurities. Dr. J. H. McLean Strengthening Cordial and Blood Purifier is a reliable spring remedy to invigorate the body and give tone to the digestion. Price 50c and $1 a bottle. At Moore & McGuire.

A Remarkable Old Lady.

There lives in White County an old lady, Mrs. Elvira T. Allen, who although 86 years of age, is almost as active of body and fully as bright of mind as a woman of fifty. Sister Allen has been a faithful member of the Methodist Church sixty years, and her interest in the church is undiminished. She often walks more than a mile to preaching and hears the gospel gladly. Her home has been the preachers home for many years, and her complaint now is that the preachers don't visit her often enough.

Sister Allen has lived in White County fifty years and is very interesting to hear her talk of the old days, and relate incidents of the long ago.

In spite of her great age, she keeps young in spirit, and instead of giving up as do so many old people, she is always busy. She has a good education and can read without glasses. She reads and keeps up with the times. A good nurse and the best of neighbors, whenever there is sickness or trouble in the community, you are almost sure to find "mammy," as she is called by everybody. The neighbors always love to have her come because she is so bright and cheerful. God's blessing rest upon her and may she have many years to bless and help those she loves. —Dahlonega District Messenger.

How to be Miserable.

Cultivate covetousness. Refuse to give anything to any benevolent enterprise or philanthropic undertaking. Selfishness is unhappiness boiled down and labeled with another name. If you are told that it is necessary to do anything of a generous sort for the benefit of posterity, ask what posterity have ever done for you? This is a stunner and never fails to silence a solicitor. If you have made up your mind to see just how much genuine unhappiness you can accumulate for yourself, begin by making yourself the center of your system and lay everybody and everything else under contribution to self. Forget the poor, forget your neighbors, forget the school, forget the church, forget public enterprises of every sort, forget posterity, forget God, and remember, every precious moment, self and self only. Plan for self, work for self, and for self only, and if you are not as miserable unhappy as you desire, then there is only one other means for procuring the boon, and that is to die and join the host of other unhappy spirits "where their worm dieth not and their fire is not quenched."—Carrollton Times.

The chaplain of the Illinois House of Representatives prayed the other day that trouble and bloodshed might be avoided; but that if it must come, that the United States would quickly wipe Spain off the map. He designated Spain as a "barbarous and blood-thirsty nation." He is on a footing with that person who, in the United States Senate not long ago besought the Throne of Grace to grant that this country might be "quick to resent insults."

GREAT OAKS

From little acorns grow, so also do fatal diseases spring from small beginnings. Never neglect symptoms of kidney troubles, if allowed to develop they cause much suffering and sorrow. Dr. J. H. McLean's Liver and Kidney Balm is a certain cure for any disease or weakness of the kidneys. A trial will convince you of its great potency. Price $1 a bottle. At Moore & McGuire.

MOTHER!

There is no word so full of meaning and about which such tender and holy recollections cluster as that of "Mother"—she who watched over our helpless infancy and guided our first tottering step. Yet the life of every Expectant Mother is beset with danger and all effort should be made to avoid it.

Mother's Friend

It assists nature in the change-taking place that the Expectant Mother is enabled to look forward with confidence to the joy of Motherhood. Its use insures safety to the lives of both Mother and Child, and she is found stronger after than before confinement—in short, it "makes Childbirth natural and easy," as so many have said. Don't be persuaded to use anything but

"My wife suffered more in ten minutes with either of her other two children than she did altogether with her last, having previously used four bottles of 'Mother's Friend.' It is a blessing to any one expecting to become a MOTHER," says a customer. HENDERSON DALE, Carmi, Illinois.

THE NUGGET.

DAHLONEGA, GA., MP. 18, 1898.

Entered at the Dahlonega, Ga. P. O. as Second Class Matter.

Mrs. John F. Little died in Gainesville last Sunday.

Atlanta has a fighting judge and a woman lover preacher.

Dr. W. J. Green is a candidate for State Senator for the 40th Senatorial district.

The Supreme Court has decided that separate coaches must be provided for the races.

It is said that ten thousand people heard Hon. W. J. Bryan speak in Atlanta last Monday night.

The Dawsonville Advertiser has hoisted the name of Hon. R. L. Berner at its mast head for Governor.

A married man in Boston who followed organizing temperance societies was arrested the other day, being engaged to six different girls.

The state populist convention met in Atlanta last Wednesday. It is said that Mr. Watson will not attend. If Watson has decided to give up the populist party, it is gone by the board in Georgia.

The home of ex-President Hayes of Fremont, Ok., is advertised by the sheriff to sell April 11th to satisfy a judgment of $5,000 for injuries sustained by Mrs. Addie M. Smith in a runaway caused by Hayes's family dog.

The Atlanta Constitution has polled the weekly press of Georgia on the gubernatorial race and find them as far as "heard from" to stand as follows: 29 neutral, 23 for Judge Atkinson, 21 for Hon. R. L. Berner while 76 are for Col. Candler.

Senator Berner made some ugly charges in his Monticello speech against the members of the legislature of 1884, which does him more harm than good. Mr. Berner is too late in preferring his charges against the members of that body now. He ought to have told on them before he announced his name for governor.

Col. Candler said in his Gainesville speech, "without any solicitation on my part I find myself a candidate for Governor." And in this same speech he stated that he had written 6000 letters to democrats throughout the state. He wrote to every member of the court house ring in Georgia but says he is opposed to all rings and cliques.

Judge Berry, judge of the Atlanta city criminal court knocked down O. H. Stearn, editor of the Looking Glass, in the Kimball House the other night and beat him up with his pistol, being the result of an article in Mr. Stein's paper denouncing the judge in the most vigorous terms. Such conduct as this should cause Judge Berry to have to slide off the bench and retire to private life.

Rev. J. T. Gibson, pastor of the Walker street church in Atlanta has been suspended on a charge of immorality. Mr. Gibson is charged with writing an objectionable letter to a lady, which fell into the hands of her husband who immediately carried it to the presiding elder. Mr. Gibson was up before the Athens conference on a similar charge but the woman's husband acquitted him. The one written to was the wife of minister Wood.

Last week while Col. H. P. Farrow was giving the Gainesville post office a general cleaning up and destroying "dead" matter, accumulating for twenty years, he found a very handsomely bound Bible that must have cost ten or twelve dollars, and a letter addressed to a person in the care of Dr. Bailey, eighteen years ago, which was put in the doctor's box for him to dispose of. Some of the things dated as far back as postmaster Archers day, twenty years ago.

Trying to Avert War.

The new Spanish Minister and President McKinley have met and talked over the Maine affair and neither one wants war. We feel confident that some kind of a compromise will be made and no blood will be shed. Although the U. S. are getting ready for it.

The latest movement for peace is to form a syndicate in the United States and raise a sufficient amount of money to buy the troublesome island if Spain will sell it. Ex-vic president Morton heads the syndicate that seeks to make the purchase.

Getting Ready for War.

Two torpedo boats were received at Newport, R. I., last Friday.

It is thought that Great Britain will be with the United States.

The southern military department is to be located in Atlanta. A car load of shells and mortars passed through Atlanta last Friday for the coast.

Fifty tons of fixed ammunition were shipped to Fort Lafayette last Saturday.

Japan says she is in sympathy with the U. S., but cannot part with any of her battleships.

The U. S. now own the two fine battle ships that were built for the Brazilian government.

Eight thousand rounds of ammunition has been received by the naval reserve at Savannah.

Japan won't sell her two new cruisers to the U. S. that are being built at Philadelphia and San Francisco.

The department has been notified that the torpedo boat at Columbian Iron Works, Baltimore, is now ready.

The Russian press say that President McKinley dares not declare war for Europe will combine with Spain.

Day and night forces are working making war preparations on the fortifications guarding the entrance to Charleston.

Fort Pickens is ready for war. New six and eight inch rifles are being mounted and a large quantity of ammunition has been received.

One company of naval reserve and one company forming the torpedo corps of the Georgia naval battalion, are located at Brunswick.

Acting under instructions from the government, the Western and Atlantic R. R. is overhauling its rolling stock preparatory to moving troops.

Mongrove, with the court of enquiry, have returned to Key West, but it is not yet known when their report will be made concerning the destruction of the Maine.

The machine shops at Newport, R. I. are running both day and night, and large shipments of ammunition are being made daily to New York and other places.

An automatic machine gun at San Antonio, Texas, for coast defenses, shooting 300 three-inch projectiles per minute, will likely be bought by the war department.

Hundreds of workmen have been added to the usual force at Vallejo, Cal., to rush the work of preparing the Charleston, Philadelphia, Hartford, Pensacola and Adams for service.

A short time after the appropriation of $50,000,000 for war purposes, the navy department purchased the dynamite throwing cruiser Nitheryn, and the U. S. now owns the only two guns of the kind in the world.

The following artillery batteries will be transported to the places named below: Battery L, Fourth artillery, from Fort McHenry, Md. to Fort Delaware; battery I, Fourth artillery, from Washington, D. C., to Fort Mott barracks (near Fort Delaware); battery E, Fourth artillery, from Sheridan's Point, on the Potomac; battery I, Second artillery, from Fort Monroe to Fort Caswell, near the mouth of Cape Fear river; battery F, First artillery, from Fort Monroe to Tybee island, Ga.; battery I, First artillery, from Fort Monroe to Fort Morgan, Ala.

Mining Notes.

Capt. W. H. McAfee, of Dahlonega is having some ore taken out of a vein on one of his lots four and a half miles from Cleveland that is worth $25 per ton.

A new battery was put in at the Hand mill last week.

They struck a large valuable sand vein at the Kentucky mine last week that will in all probability cause its owners to add at least ten more stamps to their present mill. The vein was discovered under the Will Lawrence cut on what is known as the Columbia property. It is twelve feet wide and its thickness is not yet known. It is said to be one of the biggest things in this locality. An experienced miner told us the other day that this vein alone would run a twenty stamp mill two or three years. When a miner strikes a sand vein in this country he at once knows that he has something good.

The Free Jim property near the colored Baptist church within the corporate limits of Dahlonega owned by Messrs. W. P. Price, Jr., H. D. Gurley, E. E. Crisson and Col. Charters, was optioned to Mr. S. M. Whorton, of Spokane, Washington, last week. A right snag little forfeit was paid which shows that the gentleman means business. Full payment is to be made in a short time. We understand that work will commence on this property at once under the supervision of Mr. E. E. Crisson, a native practical miner of many years experience.

The Calhoun property, which was donated to the trustees of the N. G. A. College some years ago, was sold to Mr. Whorton last week for the sum of ten thousand dollars. One thousand of this amount was paid down and the other will be paid in a few months. This is known to be very valuable property. Mr. Huff and Legins with a hand mortar beat and panned out nearly five hundred pennyweights in a single day last year. The property already has a forty stamp mill on it but cannot be operated on account of the dam having been washed away some years ago, and the scarcity of water in the dry season has been a draw back since its destruction. The service of Mr. John Huff has been secured who will commence at once prospecting the property to see if it will not pay better to erect two ten stamp mills at different places on the property than to repair and run the old one. Mr. Huff has already commenced work with a sufficient number of hands to make the proper developments. Mr. Whorton has his eye on other valuable property within a short distance of Dahlonega which will no doubt become his in the near future. He left last Tuesday and will visit Texas, California, New York and his home before he returns to Dahlonega. Mr. Whorton does not have to ask any man or company for money to make investments with but has plenty of his own.

The mining outlook is now very bright in this section and many new changes will doubtless be brought about during this spring that will be beneficial to both the country and investors.

The colored female school teacher engaged in her profession in our town, seems to have a better system of teaching than some of the white teachers. When she dismisses school she rings the bell so as to let the childrens parents know that they are on their way home. Though, this cannot be done by white teachers who receive notes to let their children go as soon as they recite their last lessons, for if they were to ring the bell every time one was let go it would soon become a nuisance and the clapper would wear out.

A Wonderful Discovery.
The last quarter of a century records many wonderful discoveries in medicine, but none that have accomplished more for humanity than this sterling old household remedy, Brown's Iron Bitters. It seems to contain the very elements of good health, and neither man, woman or child can take it without deriving the greatest benefit. Brown's Iron Bitters is sold by all dealers.

The Weekly Press and the Governor's Race.

Most of the editors of the weekly press of Georgia have expressed themselves in the gubernatorial race that is growing so warm. There are but few but what have a choice. We have but will be perfectly satisfied if the people will select a man to occupy the gubernatorial chair that is qualified to look after every interest of the state as well as the one that occupies it now, for he has certainly performed the duties of such office well, without favor or affection. We prefer Judge Atkinson because his past record as a public officer is perfectly spotless and if he succeeds we are fully satisfied that no one will ever have cause to regret it. It is true that Col. Candler lives in our neighbor county Hall, and represented this district in congress a few years ago, but if he ever raised his voice in behalf of this section we don't now remember it. If he had even shown a willing hand it would have been different. While occupying this important position the Georgia legislature passed a resolution asking congress to establish a branch mint or assay office at Dahlonega. Did Col. Candler work for it? No! He had Gainesville inserted in the place of Dahlonega. Some of our citizens got mighty mad about it at the time but we recan this matter has slipped their memory as several of them almost shed tears when they hear his name mentioned now.

W. B. Anderson owns a young calf that has no eye balls. It is all right otherwise but deficient in this respect.

Frank Chapman is very sick, and if there is no change for the better soon he will not be here much longer. His health has been bad for years and has been growing worse for some time.

Ex-Mayor McGuire of Dahlonega was appointed a member of the executive committee of the Industrial Convention for the 32d Senatorial District, which met in Atlanta yesterday, but was not noticed in time to be present.

The census enumerators of this county commenced their work last Monday morning. Mr. Brown takes Dahlonega, Auraria, Martin's Ford, Mill Creek, Jones' Creek, Nimberville and Hightower districts, while Mr. Stargel will look after the children of school age in the other part of the county.

It is thought by some of the town school trustees that the public schools of the town-colored and white—can be run at an expense of $1,500 per annum. The towns part of the public school fund of the state will likely be about $800, and the balance will have to be raised by tax payers if they desire a nine months school. The trustees have been looking for a site but have not got suited. They will first have to see how much money it will require to establish the schools before an election will be ordered. "for bonds."

A NEW TRIUMPH.

The Dreaded Consumption Can Be Cured.

T. A. Slocum, the Great Chemist and Scientist, Will Send to Sufferers, Three Free Bottles of His Newly Discovered Remedies to Cure Consumption and All Lung Troubles.

Nothing could be fairer, more philanthropic or carry more joy to the afflicted, than the generous offer of the honored and distinguished chemist, T. A. Slocum, M. C., of New York City.

He has discovered a reliable and absolute cure for consumption, and all bronchial, throat, lung and chest disease, catarrhal affections, general decline and weakness, loss of flesh and all conditions of wasting away; and to make its great merits known, will send three free bottles of his newly discovered remedies to any afflicted reader of the Nugget. Already his "new scientific system of medicine" has permanently cured thousands of apparently hopeless cases.

The Doctor considers it not only his professional, but his religious duty—a duty to which he owes to suffering humanity—to donate his infallible cure.

He has proved the "dreaded consumption" to be a curable disease beyond a doubt, in any climate, and has on file in his American and European laboratories thousands of "heartfelt testimonials of gratitude" from those benefited and cured, in all parts of the world.

Catarrhal and pulmonary troubles lead to consumption, and consumption, uninterrupted, means speedy and certain death. Don't delay until it is too late. Simply write T. A. Slocum, M. C., 98 Pine street, New York, giving express and postoffice address, and the free medicine will be promptly sent. Please tell the Doctor you saw his offer in the Nugget. Jan. 28.

THE NUGGET.

Dahlonega, Ga., Nov. 18, 1898.

If you miss getting your paper let us know.

C. W. Satterfield now occupies the Dock Hope house.

Col. Baker and Mr. J. V. Harbison visited Atlanta this week.

The late acts of the legislature have been received by Judge Tate and those entitled to them can get them by calling at his office.

No property had to be sold or even advertised for taxes for 1897 for the first time since the establishment of the county, no doubt.

If you want to talk from here to Gainesville over a telephone see how it can be done by reading an article on the first side. Col. Farrow will make you a proposition in a short time. Telephones are being constructed all over the country and Dahlonega must have one.

In referring to the Clerks race last week we stated that J. H. Moore had no opposition in his last race. It was the second race that he had no opposition. Mr. M. W. Head was in the field against him in his third and last race and made a very good introductory run.

Mrs. Riley Dangler, whose husband deserted her because he loved another woman some months ago, came in a few days ago and settled off another account of about ten dollars made by him while they were living together. There are but few women of Mrs. Dangers disposition.

Moore & McGuire have just received a beautiful line of dress and dry goods. They also have a few more winter suits of clothing which will be sold cheap in order to make room for their large spring stock. And are ready any time to take orders for tailor made suits. Also have a nice line of dress shirts, and shoes, there is no better nor larger stock in town. All sorts and sizes and up to date in styles.

A few days ago 49 tax if it had been recorded as insolvent for 1896, were placed in the sheriffs hands by the ordinary for collection, or for an effort to be made in this direction, with instructions for him to collect just half the principal where the parties had been doubled. This gives them a splendid opportunity after their carelessness in not making their returns to the receiver, saying nothing of them having more than two years in which to settle it. The sheriff has already met with some success in his undertaking.

On our first page will be found an interesting letter from J. M. Galbreath who is operating a gold mine down in Alabama, in the employ of The Alabama King Mining Co. Mr. Galbreath is a resident of White county and has a host of friends in both White and Lumpkin counties that will be glad to hear from him. He is a highly respected citizen of Pleasant Retreat, right in the heart of the gold belt where so much successful mining has been done, which gives him a full knowledge of the business he is following.

Mrs. Keys, who was recently granted a $1,800 pension by the U. S. pension department received the money last week, with which she paid $700 for a wagon, team and a farm in Hall county belonging to T. S. Littlefield, of Dahlonega. The old lady moved to her new place of abode last Sunday together with her son-in-law, Allen Beck. Those that had assisted her in securing her pension were a sad look as she did not even offer them a nickel for their services. One mans traveling and other expenses in looking up testimony for her was about $27. This account she approved but that was all. We knew of a man in this county who after getting his money treated those that had assisted him in the same way and it was not long until his pension ceased coming and he could never get the proper ones to investigate his claim any more.

Dr. Jones has dressed up his office in a new coat of paint.

Mrs. J. S. Stewart, after an absence to Marietta for several days, has returned home.

Mrs. Carrie Copeland, of Pickens county arrived in our city last week in company with her brother, W. E. Worley, who has been located for some time at Murphy, N. C.

The clock at the post office has been moved up with the Gainesville city time, and if you wish to send letters off you must get them in the office thirty minutes earlier of mornings than usual.

We publish today the announcement of E. F. Jackson who is a candidate for re-election to the office of County Treasurer. Mr. Jackson has served the people of Lumpkin county for several years and if there has ever been any deficiency in his work the grand jury nor finance committee have not said anything about it and we have not heard a single person say that they are opposed to his re-election unless it was some one that wanted the office.

Quite a number of Lumpkin's citizens have gone to visit the U. S. Court in Atlanta. Some go as witnesses and will draw $1.50 per day and mileage, while others appear there to plead guilty to violating the internal revenue laws and will go to jail where they will remain for several months and be fed on fat meat and cow peas twice a day if they desire it. Then they will be turned loose in the city without a cent to come home on and look as odd as a fresh picked goose.

Don't fool around and think you can let all the people know that you are a candidate without announcing in the paper for you can't do it. When it appears in print a fellow can't go into far off districts and defeat you by putting out a false report that you are down and cause your friends to vote for some one else. Then again, your early announcement may keep some one else out of the race against you. Your announcement will cost you just as much later on as it will now.

The U. S. pension department has discontinued the pension of Mrs. Mary Garrett, who won the affections of Riley Dangler and caused him to quit his wife some months ago and go off on a love voyage. After Riley was released from jail on bond a short time ago and went back to his old neighborhood at the foot of the Blue Ridge, Mrs. Garrett came back from Jackson county, and we suppose she will spend the spring and summer in that neighborhood too. Riley is three times uglier than the writer and why it is that the woman had rather give up her pension than to lose his love is a mystery to us.

On last Sunday morning at 3 o'clock a house belonging to W. P. Price, Jr., located just above the jail, was destroyed by fire, caused by a defective stove flue. The building was occupied by two colored families, Uncle Tony Stephens and Samuel Goudlock. Uncle Tony lost everything he had while trying to extinguish the fire, but Sam was more thoughtful and saved the most of his things. A great crowd was on hand but arrived too late to be of much service as the building was old and dry while the east wind helped to hasten its destruction, and all that could be done was to watch the jail and a few other buildings and keep them from catching from the falling sparks that were carried a considerable distance by the wind. It was a sad sight to see old Uncle Tony sitting down against a tree shoeless, watching everything he possessed in this world destroyed by the hungry like flames. Uncle Tony went round Monday morning and was made glad by many very liberal contributions from our citizens in the way of money, clothing and catables. Sam was kindly remembered too. This building had stood the storms of many winters and was erected doubtless more than sixty years ago.

Mr. E. Carroll has decided not to go to Gainesville, but will remain in Dahlonega.

The revenue officials destroyed another large illicit distillery in White county one day last week, but got no one.

Dr. Rhodes of Dawsonville came up last week to visit his sister Mrs. D. T. Harris, who has been sick for several days.

The college dormitory, mentioned in our last weeks issue has to be completed and ready for occupancy by the 30th of August.

Cal Taylor who has been operating a shingle machine for some time in Wahoo district, got one of his thumbs sawed off one day last week.

John Redmond has sold out his mercantile business over at Garland and will devote his time in tilling the soil while not using the saw and hammer.

Collector Trammell went up into Rabun county last week and destroyed nine distilleries, captured a team and assisted in arresting two men, all in three days.

Messrs Cook, Strickland, Rickets and Redmond have the contract of building Mr. Wins Brunes residence on the lot adjoining our office. It is to be about 16x28, with necessary porches and to contain four rooms.

It seems that we were misinformed about Col. Charters owning a church, as stated in last weeks issue. The Colonel secured the property as trustee for the members of the church, besides contributing some twelve or fourteen dollars for the purchase of the same.

We are requested to state that Dr. Jesse A. Reid, of Acworth, will visit Dahlonega on the third Monday in April and remain for a few days for the purpose of practicing dentistry. He will be prepared to do all kinds of work, and perform any operations pertaining to his profession.

Now if you want to get all the home news and desire to keep posted about the United States, Spain and other countries, send in $1.75 and secure the NUGGET and Weekly Constitution twelve months. If you are already a subscriber to the NUGGET and wish the Constitution, send in seventy-five cents and get this great weekly paper and keep posted on all foreign affairs.

The addition of a normal department to the N. G. A. College is causing many to attend school here that wouldn't otherwise. The trustees have granted all students who desire to attend to do so without having to purchase a uniform. This enables the public school teachers to attend this department three months for the purpose of brightening up some, at a very small expense.

Remember that the NUGGET is no mans mouth piece. We are able to express ourselves before seeing the other fellow first. There are too many people that are like the mourner that was at church once. The preacher came round and asked him if he loved Jesus. The reply was that he didn't hardly know. So the minister went on to the next fellow and asked him the same question, who stated in the affirmative. Then the first fellow jumped and yelled out in a loud voice so every body could hear him, "I do too! I do too!" Such persons as this need a guardian.

Upon an investigation we find that the recent decision of the Supreme Court doesn't effect the local law preventing the sale of liquor in Dahlonega, because this local law was passed before the general liquor law went into effect, and the ordinary of our county has no right whatever to grant license for the sale of liquor in Dahlonega. Dahlonega is pretty well protected from its sale by law if it was carried out. Even the Mayor has a right to bind a person over to the Superior Court for selling liquor within the corporate limits but he is powerless to act unless they are brought before him.

Our subscription list continues to swell but we have no objections.

Nine hundred trees or bushes consisting of holly, cedar, laurel and sweet shrubs were shipped to Mr. Christian Wahl, Milwaukee, Wis., this week to be set out in a park.

John D. Cayender, of Union county, is fixing to build him a house in Dahlonega, where the old gentleman and his lady expect to locate and live here the rest of their days.

We learn that J. B. Hatfield, formerly a citizen of Dahlonega but now of Monticello, went to Atlanta a few days ago to have a surgical operation performed for a stone in the bladder it is supposed.

Col. Charters attended Wahoo Justices Court last Saturday. He didn't go to ask the Justice to endorse him for Solicitor General but to look after the interest of a client, and he gained the case too.

A blind tiger has been reported to us as being run in Dahlonega. The newspaper is not the proper place to make such reports. The mayor and grand jurors are the ones that should attend to these matters.

There would be less danger of fire in Dahlonega if all our citizens would burn out their chimneys every time it rains when they need it, and put their stove pipes and flues in safe condition. If each one occupying a house would make a ladder it would be so handy to use in getting up on the building. It wouldn't cost much either and be so much better than standing off on the ground watching the roof of your house burn and unable to get to it.

The other night when the alarm of fire was given Capt. Woodward, the tall editor of the Signal, appeared on the front of his house and promanaded up and down the porch in the rays of the moon yelling "fire! Where is it?" for some time before he realized that he was only doped in the upper part of his night uniform. His pants were conveyed to him which he succeeded in getting in and it was some time before he discovered that he had them on like a shirt-bosom in front. The house was all reduced to ashes before he got ready to go.

One of our friends was in the office the other day apparently in much trouble because some parties near the Yahola line were going to ask the ordinary to be cut off into the stock law district which would greatly injure a number of other citizens, and desired to know what he would do to prevent it. The best way is not to utter a word and let the so called cut be made and then when your hog or cow is impounded swear out a possessory warrant and secure it with but little expense as was done in Floyd county. A cut off was made down there like it is here—not in accordance with law—and the case went to the Supreme Court and the result was those fellows in the cut off had to rebuild their fences and let peoples stock alone.

About four weeks ago while a lady was carrying a jar of butter across the Chestate river in a boat the vessel capsized and both passenger and butter went to the bottom of the stream. The lady got safely out but the butter was lost. The other day, three weeks from the time the accident occurred, a gentleman while fishing felt something heavy to his hook. He pulled the hook to the top of the water and found that he had caught the cloth which still tightly covered the jar of butter. It was taken out and its contents found to be just as nice and fresh as the day it was dropped into the river. There is a good deal of butter that is sold in Dahlonega that should be soaked in the Chestate or some other stream if it would do it any good in reducing its strength. Some balls of butter were brought in the other day the center of which was nothing but tallow. But this kind of butter need not go through the soaking process.

Mr. T. S. Littlefield will move to Gainesville next week.

Do you want to read the Nugget? If so send in the "scads."

Mrs. M. G. Boyd left Wednesday for a visit to friends in Atlanta.

Robt. Meaders went down to Atlanta Monday to hear the great speech of Hon. W. J. Bryan.

Col. Charters spent several days in Atlanta this week.

Fresh crackers and Ben Davis apples at Moore & McGuires.

Peach trees are in bloom and spring time will soon be here, gentle Annie.

Every body here reads the Nugget. Those that are not subscribers borrow it.

Acy Crenshaw has received his post office commission and is now working for Uncle Sam at New Bridge.

A. B. Christopher, who is doing business in Gainesville, was up this week courting our merchants for their trade.

We have very good side walks when the weather is dry but when there comes a wet spell the middle of the road is much better than some of them.

John Findley has taken several shots at a number of the mills and mines in this vicinity with his kodak. The pictures are good ones and find ready sale.

We wish the Atlanta Journal could reach Dahlonega the same day it is published. Notwithstanding many of our citizens take it. It is one of the best papers in Georgia.

Prof. J. S. Stewart and Mr. G. McGuire were elected last Sunday to represent the Dahlonega Methodist Sunday School in the state convention. The Baptists will elect their delegates next Sunday.

W. R. Forest, who resided in Dahlonega many years ago had the misfortune to lose one of his sons last week, who was killed by a train at Stone Mountain. His age was about sixteen.

Miss Cordelia Smith, formerly of Dahlonega but now of Greenwood, Cal., was wedded on the 4th inst. to Mr. Richard Castleberry, of that city, who is also a native Georgian.

Another boy made his appearance at Cicero Wallace's Wednesday night making him so proud that he speaks of announcing his name for clerk of the Superior Court in a few days.

NOTICE TO DEBTORS:—All persons indebted to the estate of the late Dr. B. F. Chapman by note or account, are requested to pay the same promptly.

ADALINE J. CHAPMAN, Adm'r.

Col. H. P. Farrow's ad. appears in this issue, who desires posts for his telephone line from Gainesville to Porter Springs—about 35 posts to the mile. He also desires to let the contract out for digging the holes. Those living along the route should do the work at living figures as it is no big railroad syndicate. Those owning the timber can well afford to furnish them just like one farmer would supply another at, and then any body can dig the holes.

O. B. Abbott, the school teacher who was reported in these columns a few weeks ago as having skipped from Davis' district without settling his board bill, called in to see us last Wednesday. He does not look much like a school teacher but it won't do to judge the man by his looks, for he is intelligent and can interest you in a conversation. He showed us a receipt from Mr. Rider for his board and says that he will commence to teach his school out in July. He further states that he has taught school in Georgia for fifteen years under first grade license, and has made several trades with parties in this and other counties and never failed to carry out his contracts with any of them. There is always two sides to a question and we take pleasure in giving this one to our readers.

College News.

The young ladies have begun practicing for their commencement exercises. We may expect something good from them after such diligent preparation.

Other promotions have been made which are as follows: To be Sergeant-Major, A. J. Wheelchel; to be sergeants, Lee Sosebee and G. L. Patterson; to be corporals, J. H. Myers and Tubby Carter.

The Phi Mu Society means to have its open debate to-morrow night.

Mr. J. W. West of the Decora and Mr. I. O. Parker of the Phi Mu Society have been elected to declaim on Memorial day.

The drill field has been leveled which pleases the boys, especially when they have to "double time." The cannon is fired each school day at sunset. Just when it fires the flag comes down from the pole where it floats proudly during the day.

At a recent election in the literary societies the following officers were elected:

Decora.
Capt. J. L. Bell, President.
Lee Sosebee, Vice-President.
A. W. Cain, Recording Sec.
A. O. Hamrick, Treasurer.
F. C. Stamey, Librarian.
L. P. Sosebee, Cor. Sec.
W. J. McKee, Critic.
E. T. Cagle, Chaplain.
W. D. Seabolt, Sergeant-at-Arms.

Phi Mu.
Adjutant W. G. Thompson, President.

A. Byers, Vice-President.
D. E. Stow, Recording Sec.
F. S. Price, Treasurer.
C. Shultz, Librarian.
A. J. Nance, Cor. Sec.
T. C. McKibben, Critic.
N. W. Grant, Marshal.
R. E. Smith, Assistant Marshal.

There was a stirring race for the presidency of the Decora Society. Mr. Ben G. Parks took one side and Capt. J. L. Bell the other. Parks is a member of the Sigma Nu fraternity, or as the boys say a Sig, and received all the aid his brethren could give him, while many of the boys were in favor of Bell because this is his senior year. Finally when the ballot was taken Bell received more than twice as many votes as his opponent. His grand success was hailed with joy by many.

Many of the students are taking active parts in the Epworth League which meets every Friday night at the Methodist church.

J. L. Bell will be president at the champion debate and D. C. Stow will be secretary.

A candidate for an office in one of the literary societies endeavored to make the boys believe that his opponent had no friends and that if he was elected it would break up the society. We shall see if his prediction was true.

Corporal Cannon of Whitfield county left for his home first of the week. He is gone to stay.

A sergeant reported a cadet for "smoking off limits" and two days later that sergeant was officer of the day and made a search for some one to serve in his place until he could go down below the college to smoke.

Mr. L. N. Shahan has returned and will serve on the champion debate for the Phi Mu Society if the opposite side will allow them two weeks in which to take choice of sides of the subject.

Even Uncle Joe Brown says he has a strong notion of volunteering and going to the war if it is declared. We learn that Ben Anderson and a number of others in and near Dahlonega speak of shouldering the musket and going to the front to fight for the flag.

A. W. Meaders proposed last week to donate the town an acre across the hill a short distance from Mrs. Reeses, on which to build a school house. The lot is a beautiful one and would have doubtless been accepted had it been a little nearer the residences of more people so that the building could be looked after while vacant.

For Mothers!

There are dangers of child-birth can be almost entirely avoided. Wine of Cardui relieves expectant mothers. It gives tone to the genital organs, and puts them in condition to do their work perfectly. That makes pregnancy less painful, shortens labor and hastens recovery after child-birth. It helps a woman bear strong healthy children.

McELEE'S Wine of Cardui

has also brought happiness to thousands of homes barren for years. A few doses often brings joy to loving hearts that long for a darling baby. No woman should neglect to try it for this trouble. It cures nine cases out of ten. All druggists sell Wine of Cardui. $1.00 per bottle.

For advice in cases requiring special directions, address, giving symptoms, the Ladies' Advisory Committee, The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.

Mrs. LOUISA HALE, of Jefferson, Ga., says: "When I first took Wine of Cardui, we had been married five years, but could not have any children. Nine months later I had a fine girl baby."

FROM WHITE COUNTY.

A Big Clean Up of Gold by W. H. Courtney. Other Interesting Items.

PLEASANT RETREAT, Mr. 16.

MR. EDITOR:—

Notwithstanding the rain and mud for the past few days, farmers work and miners proceed all the same. W. H. Courtney, the efficient manager, has just taken out more than 500 dwts. of gold from about one week's work with pipe, and an average of five hands. We will not endeavor to say how many weeks in the year will equal the yield of this one, but leave the reader to his own presumptions in the matter.

Messrs. R. K. Reeves and L. H. Burch of Athens, Ga., were here Monday and Tuesday of this week. They were accompanied by Mr. C. S. Marsland, of Manchester, Eng. This last named gentleman will remain among us for a month perhaps for the purpose of making thorough investigations of the mines, mining operations, &c., &c. We are not authorized to say any thing definite, but from present indications, he may become an investor in mining property here, of this we will know later. Wishing our friend Marsland a pleasant stay in our midst, and happiness through life, we turn our thoughts to matters in general.

Rabbits and squirrels are plentiful and the smiling opossum more than a plenty, when he comes along to the hen roost. Charley Courtney and John Seabolt caught two yesterday, beside other game without number. Hope they got the 'possum that's been catching Mrs. Moody's hens.

Well, the wild animal has been caught (it); the one seen at the mines some time ago. It proved to be the scared man's dog.

Mr. James Corbin has been sick a few days but is getting out again.

Gus Seabolt is another hustler. He's been building a new garden these wet days—that means vegetables by and by. Let others do likewise.

Messrs. Hughes and Campbell of Dahlonega, passed through town some days ago. In appearance well and happy.

When you get that telephone to Dahlonega may be we'll get an extension or branch line, and we can then communicate incidents as they occur.

From the way logs and lumber are being hauled by Grindle Bros. and others, great improvements are being made some where. Hope it doesn't mean a preparation for war any where close about.

Speaking of 'possums, a young man said the other day that he had a dog which had caught 150 of the grinders, besides minks and other varmints. Well, the legislature ought to have pensioned that old hound, Spec. He's dead though now.

Good luck to you and your readers. WHITE.

The State Populists Convention Names a Ticket.

The state populist convention convened in Atlanta last week and fired a few shots at the democrats, adopted a platform, nominated a full ticket from Governor on down all in a day and night and returned to their respective homes the following morning. It is said to have been a fine looking body of men as every met in the capitol. Of course there was bound to be a few homely looking persons in as large an assembly as this, but they caught the eye of cartoonist Henderson who presented them to the readers of the Constitution the following day.

In their platform a reduction in the taxes were favored and like all candidates didn't forget to allude to the large public school and pension funds but didn't want either one of these touched. If the populists or any other party will mention the place where a "cut" can be made it will do it more good than alluding to it in a general way. Point out the place where the taxes can be made lower. Every candidate that has come out for years alludes to this matter until "I" or "we favor lower taxes" has become as old as the familiar song Amazing Grace.

The ticket nominated is as follows:

For Governor,
Thos. E. Watson, of McDuffie.
For Secretary of State,
L. O. Jackson, Decatur.
For Comptroller General,
Ben Milliken, Wayne.
For Treasurer,
J. H. Taylor, Troup.
For Commissioner of Agriculture,
J. S. Dayitt, Polk.
For School Commissioner,
B. M. Zettler, Fulton.
For Attorney General,
Carey Thornton, Maccozgee.
For Chief Justice,
Walter B. Hill, Bibb.
For Associate Justice,
(Long Term),
W. R. Leakin, Chatham.
For Associate Justice,
(Short Term),
Claborne Snead, Columbia.

Poisoned by Mistake in Union County.

A few days since Mr. James Gooch, who lives in Gaddistown district, Union county, poisoned himself and whole family by mistake. Mr. Gooch intended to make a mixture of nix vomica and whiskey, but instead of nix vomica he put Rough on Rats in the whiskey by mistake. All the family except Mrs. Gooch partook of the mixture, and all were badly poisoned. One of the sons of Mr. Gooch became so sick that he had to be carried home. All have recovered from the effects of the poison except an old lady who is quite sick yet but will recover. All poisonous articles should be carefully labeled so that a mistake of this kind could not occur.

The Hall county commissioners are determined to have the roads worked. They have issued circulars to the road commissioners stating that the law must be carried out to a letter—15 days work from each hand of road age.

The success that has attended the use of Dr. J. H. McLean's Volcanic Oil Liniment in the relief of pain and in curing diseases which seemed beyond the reach of medicine, has been truly remarkable. Hundreds supposed to be crippled for life, with arms or legs drawn up, crooked or distorted, their muscles contracted, have been cured through the use of this remedy. Price 25c, 50c and $1.00 a bottle. At Moore & McGuire.

Democrats Will Hold Primaries.

The state democratic executive committee met in Atlanta last week and decided in favor of two conventions to be held on the following dates: Primary, June 6th. Convention, June, 29th. For Supreme Court: Primary, June 23rd. Convention, July 30th. The returns of elections to be made to the executive committee of each county the following day after the election. Each county is entitled to twice as many delegates to the state convention as it has members in the house of representatives. Persons voting by proxy must be citizens of the county which they represent.

Senator Clay resigned the chairmanship of the committee and Hon. F. G. DaBignon was elected to fill the vacancy.

The typical county editor is quite a character. He is both a fool and a smart man. He is a fool for being an editor, and, being one, he is smart to keep out of the poor house. You will find him smoking ten cent cigars with some nobly in the morning and planning some gigantic scheme for deep water navigation along with men of means, and when evening drives him home, you will find him hustling around for dear life picking up enough fire wood to keep from freezing. He eats a cold potato for supper that some subscriber has brought in, which was slightly frost-bitten and was thought dangerous for cow feed. He then takes a seat, fills his clay-pipe with plug tobacco and begins to think. Crossing his legs, he looks at his run-down shoes, feels of the holes in his coat sleeves that his elbows have worn, and takes up his pen to write about this glorious land we live in—a land flowing with milk and honey. Finally he crawls off to bed, leaving his wife up to put an additional patch on his last pair of breeches.—Ex.

H. A. Terrell, of Gainesville, shipped 800 chickens to Cuba last week.

An Old Idea.
Every day strengthens the belief of eminent physicians that impure blood is the cause of the majority of our diseases. Twenty-five years ago this theory was used as a basis for the formula of Brown's Iron Bitters. The many remarkable cures effected by this famous old household remedy are sufficient to prove that the theory is correct. Brown's Iron Bitters is sold by all dealers.

It is believed that the shortage of Hall county's old tax collector, Mr. Robinson, will be made good in a short time. His lands are advertised for sale by the sheriff and his bondsmen are settling off a portion of the money.

Don't Neglect Your Liver.
Liver troubles quickly result in serious complications, and the man who neglects his liver has little regard for health. A bottle of Brown's Iron Bitters taken now and then will keep the liver in perfect order. If the disease has developed, Brown's Iron Bitters will cure it permanently. Strength and vitality will always follow its use. Brown's Iron Bitters is sold by all dealers.

The new postoffice appropriation bill now before the house embraced a provision of $150,000 for rural mail delivery, an increase of $100,000 over that of last year. The officials of the department believe that within five years this delivery will be extended to 10,000,000 families which do not now enjoy the advantage.

The movement of big guns to the Atlantic and Gulf ports suggests to a Columbus what that Uncle Sam might be preparing to treat Spain to artillery punch.

The Valdosta Times says that the war craze will, in a little while, give way before the frenzy of the rooters at the diamond.

CENTRAL AMERICA.

An Old Dahlonega Boy Tells Many Interesting Things About the Country.

MICAMAR, COSTA RICA, C. A., March 9, 1898.

ED. NUGGET:

I thought maybe it might interest some one for me to drop a few lines from this country. We have been here five months yesterday, and the more I see of the country the better I like it.

I received a letter saying that it was reported there that I had lost my hand, which is a mistake. While tightening up a bolt my hand slipped and the bolt passed through my hand tearing it off very bad but it is so I can use it now very well.

Every thing is moving along very well. At present there are five of us Americans here and Mr. Guss Sherrell and brother will arrive in a day or so. Mr. Sherrell used to superintend a mine in Lumpkin county, near Auraria.

Mr. Thompson, Mrs. Crandall's father, died in St. Louis on the 15th of February. Mrs. Crandall returned to the state first of January.

This is one of the most beautiful countries you ever witnessed. We are 12 miles from Puntarenas and are 3,500 feet above sea level. Just think of rising 3,500 feet in 12 miles. We have some of the prettiest views here known. We can see the Pacific Ocean and the ships sailing on her blue waters from our doors, and the St. Lucas, where all the convicts are kept. It is a small island off from the shore. They have no guards. And if a prisoner can escape the sharks in swimming off he can go. There are thousands of them all around the island.

We have plenty of fruit here such as pine apples, bananas, oranges, lemons and coconuts in abundance. We can get a hand bunch of bananas for 10 cents and oranges 2 1-2 cents per dozen. It costs nothing to live here if you could eat such things as the natives.

This is a free silver country and there is plenty of it. It is nothing to see a man with from $50 to $75 in his pockets. But every thing is high. A pair of shoes costs $8 to $15. I have bought two pair since my arrival costing me $8 for one pair and $12.50 for the other. The cheapest thing here is rum which is $9 per gallon, sold every where. Women and children get drunk. Parents teach their children to smoke cigarettes and drink rum as soon as they can walk. They are raised like the monkeys, to look out for themselves. They don't pay as much attention to their children as you would a dog. They go and come when they please.

I will close for this time. J. F. RIDER.

Every mother feels an indescribable dread of the pain and danger attendant upon the most critical period of her life.

Becoming a mother should be a source of joy to all, but the suffering and danger of the ordeal make its anticipation one of misery.

MOTHER'S FRIEND

is the remedy which relieves women of the great pain and suffering incident to maternity; this hour which is dreaded as woman's severest trial is not only made painless, but all the danger is removed by its use. Those who use this remedy are no longer despondent or gloomy; nervousness, nausea and other distressing conditions are avoided, the system is made ready for the coming event, and the serious accidents so common to the critical hour are obviated by the use of Mother's Friend. It is a blessing to woman.

DAHLONEGA, GA., MR. 25, 1898.
Entered at the Dahlonega, Ga. P. O.
as Second Class Matter.

Montana had an eighteen inch snow on the 29th inst.

Judge Atkinson has challenged his opponents for a joint debate.

The damage by frost a few days ago in Suivan Valley, California is estimated at $250,000.

The Governor has given Mrs. Nobles another new lease on her life until the 1st of April.

The state Sunday School convention meets in Gainesville on the 18th and will hold three days.

Col. Candler refuses to join his opponents in a joint discussion but prefers to go it on the still hunt.

The Cubans are starving to death. In many sections they are digging up the earth for the worms they find.

Fifteen hundred persons want passage from the gold fields of Alaska. Many will return to the south with much gold.

If Col. Candler is such an influential democrat why is it that he didn't show his hand in the last Mayors election of his town and keep a republican from carrying it?

Indians are dying of starvation along the Tanana river in Alaska, Wash. It is stated that they have eaten all their dogs. A relief expedition has been sent with food to the famishing natives.

Mr. Watson has not said yet whether he will accept the nomination for Governor by the populists or not. But it is believed that he will and if he does he will cause some trouble among the democratic ranks.

No doubt more blockaders will be sent to the penitentiary now since one has been selected so convenient as that in North Carolina. Judge Newman is getting tired of men being brought before him more than one time for the same kind of an offense.

Georgia's militia have had a good time up to the present enjoying themselves in camp every summer at a big expense to the state, but now war may come and their pleasures will come to an end, for they have to go to the front if the Governor sees proper to give the order.

The democratic executive committee acted wisely when it requested that primaries be held. Every one is getting tired of the "big democratic" or any other political "mass meetings." They are generally composed of a few court house rings that rarely ever fail to control.

Judge Atkinson opened his campaign with an able speech at Hawkinsville last Saturday. The Judge not only favored a reduction in taxes but showed how it could be done. This his opponents neglected to do. They favor stopping the leaks in the state treasury but don't tell what kind of a stopper to use. In one item alone the Judge told how the state could save annually $70,000, and that was by having only one session of the legislature every two years.

The last legislature passed an act requiring the ordinaries of each county to appoint a committee of three from every company of soldiers going to the front from their respective counties in the late war, as well as militia companies, whose duty it will be to furnish a list of every soldier belonging to such companies so that they can be recorded in the Clerks office and published in the county papers. This act will be complied with by Judge Tate right away. Then those who actually shouldered guns in the defense of their country will be known to all, and it will be a great advantage to the commissioner of pensions and cause a large number of names to be dropped from the roll, resulting in a decrease of taxes.

Brief War Notes.

Italy has sold Spain a cruiser. The army and navy are now ready for war.

Approaches to the national capital are now well protected.

The soldiers stationed at Atlanta left for the front this week.

Three car loads of ammunition reached Tampa, Fla., last Monday.

It is reported that Gen. Longstreet is willing to go to the front again.

Fifteen cars of soldiers and artillery passed through Macon Friday night for Savannah.

The Bethlehem, Penn., Iron Works shipped three five-inch guns to Washington last Friday.

Two and one-half millions of dollars are being spent for small arms, ammunition and general ordnance supplies.

Batter K, light artillery is at Galveston and a company of heavy artillery from Jackson, with several two-inch guns.

Spain has lost 70,000 soldiers in the war with Cuba, and now only has 610,000, being her total strength of all sorts.

The cruises, built by the Armistongs for Brazil, was purchased by the United States last week and sailed for Key West Monday.

Galveston, Texas, is being fortified in great haste. Two ten inch guns and mortars are being put in position. Three car loads of torpedoes have already arrived.

A relief fund of $9,033 and 21 car loads of provision and clothing collected in Mississippi, Kansas and Oklahoma were shipped from Kansas to the starving people in Cuba on the 29th.

The house committee on naval affairs has recommended the construction of a new dry dock on the Atlantic coast sufficiently large to accommodate the demands of our heaviest war ships.

The report of the investigating committee of the Maine was to have been made known by the President yesterday, which will decide the war question either one way or the other.

A train load of troops from Fortress Monroe passed through Atlanta last Friday for Fort Morgan, in Mobile. Six big east defense guns and two car loads of army supplies made it look like war times.

Seventy-five gattling guns and eight mortars passed through Atlanta the other day to Pensacola. The mortars fire shells weighing 600 pounds and each gattling gun fires 60 times per minute.

A New York special says that a contract has been made to supply the navy with 1,000 half barrels of pork and as much salt beef. Armour & Co. supplied the Spanish with 1,500,000 pounds of bacon last week.

Powder, shot and shell are still being shipped to Pensacola, Fla., for the forts and batteries defending the harbor. Three big mortars are being mounted, and in addition to the six-inch rifle guns a fifteen-inch gun is being mounted on the fort.

The Blind Tiger.

MR. EDITOR:

You never refused to give the name of the person that is running a blind tiger away up in Jones Creek, but when you are asked to call attention to the one in Dahlonega, where liquor sells both day and night, Sundays not excepted, ruining young men of our town, you conceal the name and the place.

A college on one hill and a wide awake tiger on the other does not speak well of a dry town. What's the use to report it to the city authorities. They know it, and the town marshal is a splendid customer of this tiger from every appearance as he is frequently seen there and can drink as much as any who go visit the place. Col. Price is opposed to his or any other boy drinking, and if he knew what I do he would not sleep another wink until this grog shop is closed. Will you publish this? CITIZEN.

Mining Notes.

Mr. John Huff has a good force of hands working on the Calhoun and is striking some good ore.

Town has been visited by a dozen or more mining men this week looking over different properties.

Mr. J. B. Duckett's services have been secured to add ten more stamps to the Singleton mill, who has already commenced work.

It will be seen by our correspondents letter elsewhere that they are now taking the yellow metal up at Pleasant Retreat in 500 penny-weight lots.

They discovered another rich vein on the Turkey Hill property while prospecting last week which is worth $3 to the panful and gets richer as they go down on it.

A number of capitalists from New York and Ohio have been here this week. The Crescent gold mine has been traded and a forfeit paid. Work will begin on in a few days.

The mill at the Kentucky mine is running after a suspension of a few weeks on ore from the recently discovered sand vein, which is giving satisfactory results to its owners.

Mr. Jos. Bell was up from the Barlow latter part of last week having in his buggy a nice lot of gold ore taken from a new vein recently found on the property of this celebrated mine. The ore was speckled with the precious metal.

Robt. Howell and Guy Reese commenced work this week under a lease on the Kentucky property which means that Bob knows of something good as he has worked on the property long enough to become acquainted with many of the best places.

College News.

At the last meeting of the young ladies society, the Corona Hedera, the following officers were elected: Miss Hattie Rogers, President; Miss Eva McKee, Vice-Pres.; Miss Maud Worley, Secretary; Miss Maggie Crisson, Treasurer; Miss Marie Gaillard, Cor. Sec.; Miss Cora Byers, Librarian; Miss Josie Clark, Critic.

Miss Rogers is in her senior class and has always been an earnest, faithful member of the society. Her sister members have shown how much they appreciate her past service by giving her their unanimous vote for the last time.

Last Saturday morning the members of the Decora Society discussed the subject: Resolved, That the dividing up of China by the European powers would be conducive to the best interests of China. Decision in favor of the affirmative. At the same time the members of the Phi Mu Society discussed the subject: Resolved, That the Hawaiian Islands should be annexed to the United States. Decision went in favor of the affirmative.

Miss Maggie Crisson was elected by the Corona Society to recite on Memorial day.

Saturday night the Phi Mu open debate took place. W. G. Thompson served as president and D. C. Stow as secretary. E. A. Lambert and J. H. Byers declaimed. The subject for debate was: Resolved, That the free and unlimited coinage of silver would be beneficial to the people of the United States. Affirmative speakers, A. Byers and J. F. Garner; negative, N. W. Grant and R. E. Smith.

After an interesting debate the president rendered a decision in favor of the affirmative. Music was furnished for the occasion by the colored string band.

Mr. J. R. Allen, a former student from White county, has returned to college and entered the Normal class. He was making preparations to enter the State Normal at Athens when the Normal department was established in our college.

Twelve more students had their names placed on the Normal class roll Tuesday. There are now fifty-six pupils in the class. All seem to be taking interest in the normal instruction.

The Gainesville and Porter Springs Telephone.

The following letter was not intended for publication but we take the liberty of publishing it as it relates to matters of public interest:

GAINESVILLE, GA., Mr. 22.

DEAR TOWNSEND:— I called at the NUGGET office but you had gone to dinner. In my hurry I could not wait. The roads are very bad and we were a little in the night getting here. I know there were several persons watching for me on the road to talk telephone. Every thing looks highly favorable to the enterprise. I made a few contracts for posts at 12-1-2 each delivered along the road. And I ought to get them all along the line at that. I have been corresponding with other telephone companies in this state and elsewhere and find that the average cost of posts through the country on such lines as this has been 16 cents each. But none of these lines have been built through such well wooded countries as ours and posts ought not to cost near so much on our line as on these other lines. I found that on some of these lines they were compelled to haul posts in some instances six or eight miles. On our line when we get four miles from Gainesville and about the same distance away from Dahlonega there will be but few posts that need be hauled half a mile. Most of the posts can be gotten within fifty yards of where they are needed. It is my purpose to get the posts in every instance from the land owners right where they are needed. There are parties wanting contracts for several miles, one person wanting the contract for all the posts between Thompson's bridge and Beardon's bridge, but in my judgment that is not the way to contract for them. I prefer to contract directly with the land owners along the line. Some of the land owners have offered to sell the posts to me cheap standing in the woods and let me have them cut and planted as the force moves up the road and I may adopt that plan for getting them. This plan would insure the greatest economy in hauling because the post nearest the hole where it is to be planted is the one we would always get. This may prove to be the cheapest way to get them, as it would dispense with a great deal of hauling. In passing up and down over the line the past few days I have been much gratified to find the people along the road so friendly to the enterprise. With this telephone line and the electric railroad both in operation all our Lumpkin county interests will revive and prosper. I have private advices of encouraging nature about the electric railroad.

Yours truly,
HENRY P. FARROW.

A NEW TRIUMPH.

The Dreaded Consumption Can Be Cured.

T. A. Slocum, the Great Chemist and Scientist, Will Send to Sufferers, Three Free Bottles of His Newly Discovered Remedies to Cure Consumption and All Lung Troubles.

Nothing could be fairer, more philanthropic or carry more joy to the afflicted, than the generous offer of the honored and distinguished chemist, T. A. Slocum, M. C., of New York City.

He has discovered a reliable and absolute cure for consumption, and all bronchial, throat, lung and chest disease, catarrhal affections, general decline and weakness, loss of flesh and all conditions of wasting away; and to make its great merits known, will send three free bottles of his newly discovered remedies to any afflicted reader of the NUGGET.

Already his "new scientific system of medicine" has permanently cured thousands of apparently hopeless cases.

The Doctor considers it not only his professional, but his religious duty—a duty to which he owes to suffering humanity—to donate his infallible cure.

He has proved the "dreaded consumption" to be a curable disease beyond a doubt, in any climate, and has on file in his American and European laboratories thousands of "heartfelt testimonials of gratitude" from those benefited and cured, in all parts of the world.

Catarrhal and pulmonary troubles lead to consumption, and consumption, uninterrupted, means speedily and certain death. Don't delay until it is too late. Simply write T. A. Slocum, M. C., 98 Pine street, New York, giving express and postoffice address, and the free medicine will be promptly sent. Please tell the Doctor you saw his offer in the NUGGET, Jan. 28.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

FOR THE LEGISLATURE.
We are authorized to announce the name of J. V. Harbison as a candidate to represent Lumpkin county in the House of the next legislature.

FOR TAX RECEIVER.
We are authorized to announce the name of J. A. Anderson for tax Receiver of Lumpkin county at the ensuing election in October.

FOR SHERIFF.
To the voters of Lumpkin: I announce myself as a candidate for Sheriff of Lumpkin county and respectfully ask the voters to give me their support. If elected I will faithfully perform the duties of such office to the best of my ability,
Respectfully,
J. M. DAVIS.

FOR COUNTY TREASURER.
To the voters of Lumpkin county: I take this method of announcing my candidacy for re-election to the office of county treasurer and hope to receive a hearty support from you. Thanking you for past favors and hoping for a continuance of the same, I am yours respectfully,
E. F. JACKSON.

Telephone Posts Wanted.

Wishing to construct a Telephone Line between Gainesville and Porter Springs I will be glad to correspond with persons wishing to contract for posts 20 feet long, straight, 4 inches at top clear of bark, delivered along the road to Bearden's bridge and Murrayville, about 35 posts to the mile. Chestnut, Post-oak or White-oak. I desire also to contract for digging the post holes 4 feet deep. Address me Gainesville, Ga., or call in person at the post office in Gainesville.

HENRY P. FARROW.

THE NUGGET.

DAHLONEGA, GA., MR. 25, 1898.

T. S. Waters was up yesterday from Gainesville.

Crout 1 cent per pound at M. J. Williams & Co. 2t

We understand that we will have a new towy marshal after this month.

Dr. Howard has been sick several days from a disease of the throat.

Mr. M. Kingsbury, who is mining near Auraria paid Dahlonega a pleasant visit last Wednesday.

Miss Clark, the lady teacher was unable to fill her place at the college last Monday on account of sickness.

Fresh cheese kept at The Commissary. Also all kinds of farming implements. Will have a supply of eastern potatoes tomorrow.

O. C. Keith, of Hall, who was caught with a load of blockade liquor in this county some time ago, was bound over by Com. Baker last Wednesday.

A stranger calling himself Harry Colbert, after boarding five weeks with Alec. Moose, near Porter Springs, skipped out a few days ago without settling the bill.

Mr. Codd returned to Dahlonega this week and has been engaged in looking over some mining property, and quite likely more property will change hands shortly.

A committee of the council was busy this week making out a list of road hands. They referred to the census of 1880 and found several boys in town that are eighteen years of age who had never worked a day on the roads nor paid any street taxes. They found 173 persons within the corporate limits liable to road duty.

W. H. Smith, a rising young merchant of Porter Springs, waived examination last Wednesday and gave a $150 bond for his appearance at the next term of the Superior Court of Lumpkin county, charged with the offense of bastardy by Mary Postell. The defendant says that he is not guilty and will fight the case as long as he has a dollar.

While Col. Farrow was up at Porter Springs this week sitting in the porch Buddie Cain was making his way to the store with a gun on his shoulder going through the Colonels lands which are posted. Buddie thought that the Col. was in Gainesville but just about that time the old man sneezed and Buddie threw his gun as far over on Aleck Moose's land as he could send it and went on whistling as if nothing had occurred.

The article of Citizen appears elsewhere concerning the blind tiger, and the writer thinks that the editor is trying to conceal the name and place because it is said to be located in the town. This is a mistake. If the writer will think for a moment he will remember that we mentioned this matter and said as much about it as we did about that of Jones Creek two months ago. We did not propose to advertise it for, if all reports are true, it is getting enough patronage without it.

No doubt the stock law in this county will be tested in the near future as a farmer residing in Shoal Creek stock law section is in town to see a lawyer about putting up Mr. Wm. Early's hogs, the owner of which lives in Martin's Ford district where the law is not in force. The hogs have not reached the other farmers corn field yet but are liable to any day. Mr. Early says he will swear out a possessory warrant for his hogs as soon as they are troubled, which may end in the Supreme Court as he is a very determined man. No doubt when it is done the stock law of that district will be wiped out on account of its not being declared a stock law district by the ordinary in the county papers according to the code.

There are three John Corns in Lumpkin county.

Dr. Waddell has an idea of going to Marietta to run a hotel.

Miss Anna Howell and "Buck" Evans were married, near town last Saturday night.

John Corn, Jr., was bound over by Commissioner Baker last week for illicit distilling.

Irish potatoes are scarce now. The mountain potato cannot be had in Dahlonega for love nor money.

Miss Mattie Moore left last Monday for Anniston, Ala., where she goes to visit her brother Mr. T. A. Moore.

Mr. James Whelchel spent Saturday and Sunday in the city visiting his children who are attending the N. G. A. College.

Any one finding a couple of flat keys—one brass—will please leave them at this office or send them to J. F. Sargent, for which they will be rewarded.

John Woods didn't come out as light in his Atlanta spree as he did in Dahlonega. He was shown the interior of the lock up down there and required to pay $6.75 besides.

Judge and Mrs. W. H. C. Tate and Mr. T. S. Littlefield and family visited relatives and friends in Chestatee district and saw the baptizing of eight converts at Mt. Pisgah church last Sunday.

A Mr. Bryan came up from Atlanta this week to look after some interests he has over on Long Branch. While here he stated that the building of the electric railway from Gainesville to Dahlonega was only a question of time.

An interesting letter will be found on our first page from J. F. Rider, who left Dahlonega several months ago for Central America. From the way Frank writes there is a big opening for missionary preachers out in that country.

Last Sunday morning Bob Meaders' old sow wanted something extra and killed an ate a grown pea fowl. A short time ago she devoured a young calf. Those owning gardens troubled by their neighbors chickens should borrow this hog.

Hon. F. C. Tate having read in the Nugget a few weeks ago where the sheriff had his garden ruined by a sow was determined that he should not do without vegetables for want of seeds. For he sent him enough almost the other day to plant a ten acre field.

Acy Crenshaw was up from New Bridge last Monday. He has received his commission for post master of that place but will not take charge until the first day of next month. He has formed a co-partnership with A. S. Whelchel down there in the mercantile business, where they expect to do business on a large scale.

The other night down in Auraria district Ben Perry and young Sumner went up to Tom Anderson's to have some fun, all feeling their toddy, it is said. Perry slipped off his new shoes so as to relieve the pains in his feet and set them to one side while they engaged in their sport. During the time some other young men went to the place and out Perry's shoes into strings and the owner had to go home barefooted. The sport cost Perry about $2. Such is life.

By looking under the proper heading in this issue you will find the name of Mr. James V. Harbison who is a candidate for the legislature. His announcement may surprise many of our readers who doubtless had never heard of his name being mentioned in this connection before, for he made up his mind at once without consulting Dick, Tom or Harry and came over and had his name placed where it will be read by hundreds of people to day throughout the county. Mr. Harbison needs no introduction to our readers as he is known to every man, woman and child in the county. And his qualifications are such that if elected, his record can always be pointed to with pride.

Poplar trees are dressed up in green.

The carpenters are now busy in erecting the Bruce house.

Bev. Brooksher, of Dahlonega, is a proud father of fourteen children.

Mr. J. B. Graham, postmaster at Two Run, was 83 years old last Sunday.

Mrs. I. W. Waddell, after a few days visit to Marietta, returned last Friday.

Prof. Stewart was off on a visit a day or two last week to see his sick mother.

Joseph Murray and Ben Moore, of the Big Joe, spent last Sunday in Dahlonega.

John Bell was over from the Big Joe Mine last Friday and reported everything moving along quietly and orderly out his way.

The Epworth League meets every Friday night and much interest is being taken in it by the young people of our town and college.

Last Sunday was the first spring day, which was beautiful and pleasant, permitting all to attend church that desired, and a large number did.

Mr. Kirkham, of Jay, has been engaged this week in turning the side of the shop, owned by the late Dr. B. F. Chapman on college street, to the front and converting it into a dwelling.

We are a little fearful that the peach trees have "acted the fool," as Mr. Besser said by the plumbrees, and bloomed out too early and will be nipped in the bud by the frosts which we will likely have yet.

J. B. Simmons, of Hightower district, is on the sick list. The old gentleman was in Dahlonega some days ago and showed that he was rapidly declining in health. He is one among the oldest citizens in the county.

Geo. W. Huntsinger, who walked the Hand canal so long, having made more steps than any man living in Georgia, is again following his same old business, who looks after the Hand canal from Dahlonega to the neighborhood of Auraria.

The "free part" of the Dahlonega cemetery should be enlarged so as to allow persons not able to purchase lots, to have a place to bury their relatives without being so crowded. Frequently an old grave is struck while one is being dug. This should receive the attention of our worthy council at once.

Our friend F. S. Packard, down at Turkey Hill, is gardening while Bill Bryson prospects for gold. Both understand the occupations they are following and have not as yet been known to fail. Mr. Packard is too old to mine but raises all the vegetables necessary while Bill exposes and takes out the gold.

Last week we learned that Ad Peck of Lumpkin county while returning from Gainesville tied his mule and horse to a rail fence to feed them. The horse got frightened and ran through the woods with the rail fastened to the rope to which it was hitched. It went over bushes and saplings at a rapid rate and had not been found by its owner at last accounts.

Census enumerator Brown was busy last week taking the names of school children in the Dahlonega district, having completed it with the exception of about 30 names. It will be about the same that it was in 1888 at which time the last census was taken. He has already taken 330 names. In 1888 there were 372 children between the ages of six and eighteen—248 within the corporate limits—45 of the latter number being colored. The school commissioner informed us Tuesday that the amount for each school child or per capita was about $2.80 which gives our town schools out of the public school fund less than $700, showing what amount will have to be raised to start and keep up the town schools.

Quite a large space in the drill field of the college was sown in grass seed last week.

The Dahlonega Nugget is not only read at home by nearly every one but it finds its way into Central America.

Judge Atkinson, one of the candidates for Governor, will visit Dahlonega court week in order to get acquainted with her people.

Mr. and Mrs. White, of Mayesville, and Mrs. Lala Pounds, of Macon, were the guests of the Rev. Mr. Parks several days last week.

John Grizzle and Miss Alice Anderson were married up in Crumby's district last Saturday night. It was a runaway match.

If there had been more knitting machines made and less organs (times would have been much better and a great deal less idle people.

Nice fresh butter brings fifteen cents per pound in Dahlonega while that which is so old that the hair in it has turned gray cannot find a sale at any price.

John McGee, of Yahoola district, says he has a strong notion of making the race for tax receiver. He will let you know in due time. Keep your eye on the Nugget.

Joseph Clements and Miss Mary Sullins were united in the holy bonds of matrimony Thursday evening of last week in the eastern portion of the county by Esq. Brown of Yahoola district.

The hands in the eastern portion of the county have already commenced working the road, getting them in shape for travelers wishing to attend court here next month.

A son of John Crain, who was wanting to join the army some time ago, was in town last Saturday rejoicing because he failed to get in. Being a soldier is a very nice thing during peace but when war comes there is not much fun in it.

We are informed that Capt. Hall and Mrs. Brown will wed next week. The Captain is paying a boat made that will be completed by that time in which they expect to take a pleasure trip of several days before they return to Florida. Then they will leave for his old home in Vermont to be gone some time.

We are informed that last Saturday was the day set apart for the citizens in the neighborhood of Mt. Gililand church, in the eastern portion of the county, to meet and clean out the cemetery at that place. When the time arrived there was one church member and two other persons. The old women speak of meeting and doing the work now themselves since the men have been so negligent towards seeing after the graves of the dead.

Col. and Mrs. Farrow went up to Porter Springs last Sunday and on their return to Gainesville stopped over an hour or so in Dahlonega. The Colonel spent a portion of the time with post master Britain devising plans by which to have the mail come and go on schedule time. Both postmasters, Farrow and Britain, have been notified by the department that the contractors will be found hereafter when they fail to carry out the schedule.

Yahoola district has been enlarged again by a slip off of Dahlonega and Cane Creek districts, being the lands of Allen Anderson, Colquitt and Anderson Head. There was no change in citizenship, only in the land. It is said that application was made to the ordinary Monday of last week, when J. M. Davis, Frank Wimpy and Dock Marlow were appointed marking commissioners for the occasion and the change was made the following day. Don't you know, gentlemen, that no such changes as this are legal and the first time that a man's stock is impounded who wishes to expend a little money it will be knocked into a cocked hat.

We do not care to fight Spain but expect to run a little mill so as to be able to draw a pension after the "battle is over."

Mr. and Mrs. Henderson, of Mayesville, spent several days in Dahlonega, with their relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Cooper, at the parsonage last week.

We notice that some of the birds have commenced building their nests. As soon as they begin laying there will be a decrease in the Sunday School attendance.

It's right funny. Some of the members of a recent grand jury of Lumpkin county who favored striking off other parties from the pension roll are now making claims for pensions themselves.

NOTICE TO DEBTORS:—All persons indebted to the estate of the late Dr. B. F. Chapman by note or account, are requested to pay the same promptly.

ADAM L. J. CHAPMAN, Admin'r.

We heard a man say the other day that he knew of four men in Lumpkin county now drawing pensions that had not been further away from home than Dahlonega or Gainesville in their lives, and that another old man was drunk as long as his pension money lasted.

We are requested to state that Dr. Jesse A. Reid, of Acworth, will visit Dahlonega on the third Monday in April and remain for a few days for the purpose of practicing dentistry. He will be prepared to do all kinds of work, and perform any operations pertaining to his profession.

"Shot gun" Walker and Lewis Prewitt went down to see Judge Newman about being charged with illicit distilling. They were acquitted and now "Shot gun" will likely continue his race for sheriff. If he does he will make it known in due time through the columns of the Nugget.

Well, the commission for James Ridley, the recently appointed post master at Yahoola post office, together with a mail sack, postage stamps and all necessary papers have been received by the post master at Dahlonega with instructions for him to turn the mail over to the proper carrier when he calls but he has not done so yet. A Mr. McDonald, residing near Porter Springs, agreed to carry this mail some time ago when its re-establishment was talked of, but since such a long delay we do not know whether he means to do it now or not. Since writing the foregoing the new post master has taken charge of the outfit and W. H. Reid will arrive and depart with the mail from Dahlonega instead of via Porter Springs every Saturday.

Witnesses who attended U. S. court in Atlanta last week report that several of the moonshiners of this section were found guilty and sentenced as follows: John Corn, Jr. got six months in Hall county jail, Fred Magness, three months and Tom Brown, of White, one month. Lark Helton, of Lumpkin county, who had two cases, making the third offense, was sentenced to the penitentiary at Raleigh, N. C., for a term of eighteen months. Lark is a man of about 65 summers and it is very doubtful whether he lives to serve it out. About a year ago an illicit distillery was found under his house. He pleaded guilty and was given a light sentence. It was as hard to get him to quit working at that place as it is to make an old setting goose abandon her nest, for when he served out his sentence he went to work at the same place again. Mr. Harbison arrested him again, when he was bound over and made bond. Then in about three months he was arrested and again bound over, making the third time. Judge Newman had become tired of this conduct and was determined that the man should not go back to that old nest any more soon. This should be a warning to others that are traveling in the same direction.

T. W. Coldwell, of Yahoola district, is going to ask the jury of his country to give him a divorce so that he can marry again should he find a fair one that suits his eye. The suit was filed against his wife last Friday on the ground of desertion. He further alleges that she had no children when she left him in 1895 and is now the mother of two.

There are two men residing near Auraria that have been fortunate in winning the affections of the fair sex as it is stated that the two have five living wives. It is Jim Edmonson and his brother, "Jim" has three (divorced from one), and Parker Edmonson left his down there and went to Tennessee some time ago. Not long since he returned with another wife and they are all living in the same settlement.

There is an ordinance against the use of slung shots within the corporate limits of Dahlonega and should be against the shooting of the air guns that are handled by nearly every little boy in town for they shoot more accurate, with greater force and are more dangerous. One of these guns came near causing the death of Senator Castleberry's little son one day last week. The horse which the little fellow was riding along the street was shot by another boy, causing the animal to throw him, and it was some time before the injured one could get his breath. Not long since another boy's horse was shot while he was on his way to attend to some business for his employer. The animal didn't succeed in throwing him but the rider dismounted and gave the lad a good whipping. This will continue if it is not stopped until the children's parents will fall out and maybe hurt each other. Not long ago a countryman's horse was shot by one of these guns in the hands of a mischievous lad. Such conduct as this will drive trade away from our town. How easy it would be for the town council to put a stop to all this mischief before it is too late.

Lum Hamilton's cow and Ike Anderson's dog which were bitten by a mad dog a few miles above town some weeks ago, are both dead. The cow after running mad died but the dog had to be shot. Other dogs are known to have been bitten but have not yet been effected. That dog that bit these curs and the cow certainly gave the people in that community much trouble before it could be killed. Whose it was or where it started from has never been known. It was first discovered under a shelter at J. B. Brown's. His daughter went to the place to get some eggs and as she stooped down for them, not seeing the dog, it came near snapping her in the face. An effort was made to shoot it but while Mr. Brown was getting in a position so as not to endanger some cattle it got away. The next heard of it was over in the Anderson settlement where it lost its life. Hughes Anderson got his gun as he saw it coming and shot but he gun had nothing but bird shot in it and failed to do the desired work. Hughes and his two young dogs jumped on it, the man catching it by the hind legs like preparing to role a wheelbarrow, and the young hounds took charge of the other end, but each one received a bite which made them so sick that they had to leave it in charge of their master. Imagine Mr. Anderson's perilous position. The dog was trying to bite him but he was afraid to let it go or hold on. Every time it made for his hands he would give its legs a jerk and cry out to the rest of the boys to shoot it, but they had nothing but a shot gun and couldn't kill the dog without hitting the man, and failed to act. After scuffling with the dog in this way over an acre or two of ground for some time the frightened man managed to get to a tree where he warped it against the body until he brought all troubles to a close. A fiddle was sent for and all present spent the rest of the evening in dancing.
